The date of the Fall Assizes at Chatham has been set for Sept. 30. The judge, however, has not been appointed yet. There is a feeling here that the Assizes should not be brought on so soon after the holidays as thereby the lawyers have no time to prepare. No pleadings can be filed during vacation. There is promise that quite a few cases will be set down for trial.

HONORED CHATHAMITE.

Saturday's issue of the Toronto Mail & Empire, contains an excellent likeness of Thomas Scullard, of this city, of whom it says:

Thomas Scullard, the president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of the County of Kent, was born in New Hampshire, county of Hants, in the year, 1858. He has been a resident of Chatham for about a quarter of a century, and has always taken an active interest in politics. He is a splendid campaign speaker. Mr. Scullard is chairman of the Collegiate Institute Board, and of the Free Library Board, first principal of the Royal Arch Chapter of Masons, and secretary of the Board of Trade. Mr. Scullard has the distinction of being the founder of the first daily paper published in Chatham. It was called the Bulletin. He is now, however, one of the leading Maple City lawyers.

Where Medical Science Fails.

To cure rheumatism, and all the time you suffer dreadfully, why don't you get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and try that? Rub it into your stiff joints, sore arms, lame back, bent shoulders—wherever the pain is. Nervousness has cured plenty of people in this way, and that ought to be proof enough that it will cure you, too. It is an unusually strong liniment that cures rheumatism in unusually quick time. Best household liniment known. 25 cents.

RECUPERATIVE EFFECT.

Considered with reference to its recuperative effect, there is not so much good in the ordinary vacation as there is in a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The latter costs $1; the former—well, that depends; how much did yours cost last year?

Hood's Sarsaparilla refreshes the tired blood, sharpens the dulled appetite, restores the lost courage.

A Corn Photographed by X Rays

Shows a small, hard kernel, covered by layers of hard skin. This tiny corn causes keen pain. The only sure means of extracting it, without pain, in a day, is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Sure? Yes. Painless? Yes. Cheap? Yes, indeed! Try it!
