

FAINTED IN CHURCH.

The Deplorable Condition of a Young Lady in Brookville.

A Case that Created Much Interest—Weak Almost Bloodless and Frequently confined to her Bed—Again Enjoying Complete Health.

Members of the Recorder have no doubt followed with interest the many instances related in these columns of recoveries—sometimes of a very remarkable nature, of persons affected with diseases of difficult kind, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

It is quite true as our medical friends say that drunkenness is a disease. It is "dipsomania,"—drink-madness. Kleptomania is the madness of the thief who steals and steals knowing well the wrong he is doing, but unable to resist an insane impulse.

Scraps for Odd Moments.

Amusements we have outgrown are called follies.

MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM, once tried, always used.

The man who is scared at ghosts is afraid of nothing.

The worst case of hoarseness will yield at once to the effect of Hawker's balsam.

"How does your new office boy do, Dick?" "Does as he pleases."

Bells and screws indicate impurities in the blood. Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures these humors.

Some men seem to think that to become angels it is only necessary to plead guilty.

For the cure of all female disorders and irregularities, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has no equal.

Visitor—"Do you regret the past?" Confessed Counterfeiter—"Oh, no; it's what didn't pass that I feel bad about."

Many children object to taking medicine, but all children love Hawker's balsam, the great cure for coughs, colds and sore throats.

Man (in theater to woman in front)—"Madam, I paid $1.50 for this seat, and my hat— Woman (calmly)—"That hat cost $40."

The Baltimore team endorsed the remark of Sam Jones that there is something wrong when a preacher gets $400 and a baseball pitcher $4,000.

Wet feet, cold in the head, cold in the chest, are reasonable complaints. Hawker's balsam cures cold in the head. Hawker's balsam cures cold in the chest.

A milk-milk man struck a citizen at Shakopee with a can of milk was arrested and fined under the liquor laws for retailing a milk punch with a license.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Denmore & Co., 271 Queen Street.

You'll let me come to your wedding, dear, of course? Well, I can't promise. My people are so enraged at my choice that I hardly know whether I shall be allowed to go myself.

MINARD'S HONEY BALSAM is a sure cure.

"Did Clara overcome her admiration for that college man?" "Oh, yes—she took the gold cure."

"What do you mean?" "She married a millionaire."

School children are not always wise. They expose themselves, and presently you hear snarly snuff. Then you need Hawker's balsam. It cures coughs, colds, and all throat and lung troubles.

Father (impressively)—"Suppose I should be taken away suddenly, what would become of you, my boy?" Irreverent Son—"I'll stay here. The question is what would become of you?"

Handsome Features.

Sometimes unightly blotches, pimples or yellow opaque skin, destroys the attractiveness of handsome features. In all such cases Scott's Emulsion will build up the system and impart freshness and beauty.

Mr. Enpee—"I can't understand how a man can love a woman who has a physical deformity, can you?"

Mr. Enpee—"Oh, I don't know; I shouldn't think less of a woman who was tongue-tied."

A Pleasing Theme.

Rev. Henry Helinger, Neustadt, Ont.: "It is a pleasure to me to write a few lines about your dyspepsia medicine."

I was cured of Acute Bronchitis by MINARD'S LIMENT.

I was cured of Facial Neuralgia by MINARD'S LIMENT.

I was cured of Chronic Rheumatism by MINARD'S LIMENT.
