The Westerner Says

Numbers of Icelanders reached Manitoba twenty years ago. From the specimens received, the West would like to take all the rest of the family.

If the Government had been just a little slower in opening the new Winnipeg post-office it would be too small for the city. The Government must learn to hustle if it would keep up with the West.

Kenora has not been heard from much of late, but it is not decaying for all that. The assessment increased by $200,000 over last year and the population is now 6,257. When we think what Rat Portage used to be, and realize what Kenora now is, we wonder why we did not buy half the town-site when it was cheap.

The man who had the honor of pulling out the first regular train on the Grand Trunk Pacific was John Culber. Think of the joy he had in looking out over the track and seeing the people welcoming the train as it sped along. The sending out of that train was like letting water into an irrigation canal. It means the cultivation and population of a wide strip of territory, twice as long as from Montreal to Toronto. It was an event worth celebrating.

Considering how little of Canada's Western timber area is left a recent game warden's report seems to sum up the situation: "Game scarce, wolves plentiful."

Hail Christopher Columbus! If it had not been for C. C. the Government would have had no Western territory to parcel out among "the boys."

Some Queer Whys

If you think you are wise and well informed, just see if you can answer these questions: You have seen hundreds of white horses why did you never see a white colt? Why does a horse eat grass backward and a cow forwards? Why does a hop vine twine to the left and a bean vine to the right? Why does a horse when staked out by a rope unwind the rope, while a cow winds it up into hard kinks? Why does a horse get up on his front feet and a cow on her hind feet? And why does a dog always turn around three times before lying down?

Hope For The Young

The average young men of twenty makes the blunder of being interested in the salary he draws. He should, instead, fix firmly in mind the principle that men do not "make money" until they are 35 or 40 years old. This is the rule, but it has its exceptions. We must go by the rule, however in discussing the question. When the young man has reached twenty he can look ahead fifteen years before he need think of making money. These fifteen years are to be used in preparation for making money, and the term is used in the legitimate sense of settling into a permanent business which will work out a reasonable surplus for the declining years of life.—Minneapolis Journal.

"Do It Now" Is a Good Motto

Galt Reporter: This is the war cry of the life insurance agent. Let it be the slogan of all interested in the cause of clean government.

That cause is a good one. Well, then isn't it good enough for YOU, YOU? Yes, for YOU, who are reading this to get out and do something.

You know well enough that you can do something. DO IT NOW.

Don't wait till after the election. Remember, every vote counts; every bit of assistance counts; every bit of confidence counts.

The present Ottawa regime will die just as surely as the life insurance agent says you will.

Let it be NOW.

Laurier himself says that he is preparing to sing the Nunc Dimittis.

DISMISS HIS GOVERNMENT NOW. What are you waiting for?

Don't think that you have done enough in giving decent administration to Ontario.

Give it to Canada, and DO IT NOW.

Failure to act will mean that the country has the same trustees for four years more—and YOU will be responsible.

DO IT NOW.
