where the people might be supposed to be in favor of unrestricted reciprocity, the result of the election cannot be very encouraging to the promoters of that much lauded, but impracticable scheme.

The sea serpent started early this season, and his appearances are becoming quite frequent. He was seen not long ago by the first officer of an seen steamship, and since that time he has revealed himself to a couple of lobster fisherman of Cape Sable. In these days of dry plates and rapid photography some enterprising individual should be able to sccure a counterfoir presentment of the off-seen monster.
