THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

A Friendly Tip.
"Is Mrs. Gabbie at home?" asked the caller.
"Be good luck, ma'am, she's not," replied the Irish maid; "but if ye're wise ye'll leave yer card and asked daddie out o' here, for she's likely to be back most any minute now."—Boston Transcript.

In Hiding.
Woman customer (after the tire assistant had pulled down blanket after blanket until there was only one left on the shelf)—"I don't really want to buy a blanket to-day. I was only looking for a friend."

Lack of Variety.
"Wot's up, Bill?" asked one English barroom loafer of another.
"It's my misssus—she's abait the worst manager ever," was the reply.
"I 'ad nothing for supper last night an' she goes and serves it again for breakfast."

"Yes! We Have No Grapefruit."
The new clerk was trained to believe that if you did not have the article demanded by the customer you should try to sell her something else.
Good, F. A.
"A woman came in and asked for grapefruit."
"No, ma'am, we have no grapefruit, but we have grape nuts, grape jelly and grape juice," was his illuminating reply.

Putting it Up to Her.
Wife (over the phone)—"John, I can't understand a word you say."
Husband (at the other end)—"Well, stop talking and listen to me."—The Spurr.
