Capt. H. E. Rulon, the representative of the Munyon Homocopathic Remedy Co., has been the busiest man in town for the past two days. He handled the immense crowds that came to get a sample of these wonderful cures with a courtesy and grace that was really pleasing to behold. Old and young, rich and poor were all received and treated with that gentlemanly courtesy that is sure to make the Captain a popular man among us. We can well understand why the Munyon Remedies become so popular, when represented by two such gentlemanly persons as Mr. Mackintosh and Capt. Rulon have proved themselves to be.
