Scarcely any business has been reported ; it is absurd to suppose that the reported sales give any idea of the volume of business, but it certainly has been comparatively small. Prices of wheat and flour have been rapidly advancing in consequence of advancing prices outside, and an active demand with small offerings here. Holders have sequence of advancing prices outside, and an active demand with small offerings here. Holders have been unwilling to sell, and have frequently refused even to name prices ; and there are some grades of both flour and grain of which there seem to be nome on hand. Stocks have been running low, and stood on Monday morning as follows :-Flour, 425 bbis; fall wheat, $7,510 bushels; spring wheat, $7,500 bushels; stall state is price state in the set is to $12, and the top price paid only on to-day.

Crop advices are decidedly favourable ; fall wheat seems to stand better than was expected, and spring seems likely to be close on an average, as does also barley. should present promises be realized. Outside advices uniformly report advancing prices. English quotations show an advance of 1d on red winter ; of 2d on red, white and club wheat; of 3d on corn and 1d on peas ; Beerbhom quotes also an advance on flour, and his quotations of wheat are generally above those of the Associated Press. The advance has evidently been caused by continued unfavourable weather in England : rain seems to have con tinued all week, and it is stated in a despatch of hem. The total supply of wheat and flour in the week ending on the 28th ult was equal to 532,-500 to 560,812 quarters v. 411,000 to 420,624 quarters No. 3. Spring Wheat, No. 1... No. 3. 500 to 560,312 guarters v. 411,000 to 420,624 guarters weekly consumption, indicating a surplus over consumption of 121,500 to 139,613 quarters. The supply of maize for the week was 3,160,000 to 3,200,000 bush, v. an average weekly consumption in 1877 of 1,261,-124 bush, v. 1,390,774 bush in 1876, and 778,858 bush in 1875. The quantity of wheat and flour on transit for the United Kingdom on the 3rd inst., showed an Black Sea ; 42,000 from Atlantic ports ; 120,000 from California, and 130,000 from Chili and Australia. Further cable advices to the 1st inst. report wheat rops running into straw and coming into ear very slowly; large tracts of land submerged, and the situation becoming serious. Prices were firmer ; about 1s per quarter advance was being paid, and a further advance expected, which has since been realised. Mail advices to the 23rd ult. state that the agricultural situation in France underwent a marked improvement during the preceding week, and with the exception of a few summer storms, the weather left little to be desired. Under the influence of a warmer temperature, the wheat fields had assumed a more promising aspect, but earing commenced fully a fortnight later than usual. A continuance of fine dry weather was expected to go far to dissipate the prevailing backwardness of all cereals, and this was especially desired in the case of wheat, as the acreage sown was admitted to be less than usual. Inactivity prevailed in the departmental markets, as, notwithstanding the limited supplies of wheat, the demand was only of a local consumptive character. Prices varied but little, an advance having taken place in 9, and a decline in 18 markets out of 85 advices received. At Paris a quiet business was done in spot wheat at previous prices. At Marseilles the arrivals of wheat for the week ending June 14th decreased to 65,000 qrs. Business in wheat was less animated than of late, as the more favourable weather restricted the demand. In Germany vege-tation was making rapid progress, the weather have to be less than usual. Inactivity prevailed in the weather restricted the demand. In Germany vege-tation was making rapid progress, the weather havtation was making rapid progress, the weather hav-ing been warm and favourable to the development of cereals and oliseeds. Agricultural reports from the North were couched in more promising terms, both with regard to wheat and spring corn, but the ears of rys were thin and poor, the crop having been irremediably injured by late frosts. At Berlin spot wheat was secret, and this met a ready sale, but there was little speculation for for ward delivery, and with improved crop prospects prices receded 1 to 2 marks on the week for July-August term. At Hamburg and Danzing trade was quiet, but prices were fairly well maintained. At Vienna prices were lower. In Roumania the During and the prices were lower. In Roumania the weather was hot and stormy, but the crops were re-garded with satisfaction. Owing to the duller state
