28,000 Saloons To Quit Business

In Four Months Time This Number of Saloons Will Close in Central West States

Chicago, March 11—More than 29,000 licensed saloons and drinking places in the six "wet" States of the Central West—Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Missouri, Kentucky and Ohio—are to go out of existence in four months' time if America abolishes liquor trade, for the first time in history under the President's war-time prohibition order.

Millions of dollars worth of property used as distilleries, breweries, saloons, wine rooms and roadhouses already has changed hands and is being converted into new lines of industry according to reports received here.

Many small breweries and a few large ones have arranged to become manufacturers, cold storage plants or artificial ice factories. In Wisconsin, which produces a sixth of all beer brewed in America, one big brewery has disposed of its fixtures and sold its kegs as "Liberty cabbage" containers.

The two hundred Kentucky distilleries of isolated roadhouses, the renegade those of brewers because location and peculiar construction of distilleries will not permit of easy conversion to other industries. Owners of isolated roadhouses, the renegade of gay auto parties, say they too, will suffer heavy financial losses. They say it would be impossible to draw patrons to out of the way places without liquor inducement.

Wisconsin has 9,665 licensed drinking places; Illinois, 8,418; Ohio, 5,600; Missouri, 1,000; Minnesota, 1,800 and Kentucky 1,600.

Ohio's saloons are expected to close on May 27 under an amendment to the State constitution.

Hundreds of saloons in the six States will be converted into soda shops, cafeterias, cafes, and motion picture houses.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requiring constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F.J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Willing to Be Taught.

"Diarist" of the Westminster Gazette says he had been hearing much lately of the Americans in France and the impression made by them upon the British there. "Without giving offense to anybody," he remarks, "I hope I may say that British admiration of them has gone far beyond the limits that were considered likely to be reached, and that they have become strong favorites. But there is one point in particular which seems to have impressed every officer who talks to me on the subject. They all quite expected to find the Americans fine men physically, with plenty of intelligence and their full share of courage and dash and endurance; but they agree that they have been surprised to note the eagerness of the new allies to seek advice. 'You have been at this game for years,' is I am told, the usual formula; 'but we are fresh at it. Tell us what you know.' It is an admirable frame of mind," adds "Diarist," "and one that promises rapid progress on the part of the willing students."—Christian Science Monitor.

In Defense of Her Flag.

How the union jack was ably defended by an Irishwoman in the streets of Paris on July 4 is amusingly told: "Outside one of the biggest drapery shops of Paris two ladies handled a union jack which lay on a great pile of flags for sale and remarked in French on its cheapness. 'The salesman, unskilled in accents, was rash enough to explain the low price by saying that the union jack wasn't in season.' He received in reply the most eloquent discourse attainable by an indignant Irishwoman of unimpaired loyalty; and an Irish brogue speaking French is an engine of war before which the most intrepid must quail. There is one Frenchman who will never again suggest that there is a close season in union jacks."

STARTLING TURN TO ONTARIO MURDER CASE

Kingston, Ont., March 11—Startling testimony was given Thursday morning in police court by Mrs. Frederick Hartwick, of Parham, against her father-in-law, James Harwick, who is charged with the murder of his son in the woods near their home on the 11th of February. She swore that on the night her husband did not return, her father-in-law told her that he had slipped and accidentally shot him dead.

He asked her to say nothing about the matter, and that the people would think his son had gone to the States. Mrs. Hartwick testified that there had been illicit relations between her father-in-law and herself, but through force and threats. The prisoner was committed for trial.

The Hague, March 6—"The Germans will accept the peace terms in spite of the colonies, but they intend to make every effort to get the colonies back in two years' time through the League," said a prominent Dutch statesman recently.

The former German Imperial For-sign Secretary, von Kuchmann, who came to the Hague on a private mission in the hope of influencing Allied circles in the matter of the colonies, has not returned, but the Germans have not given up colonial dreams and the welcoming home of the colonial East African troops from the time they reached Rotterdam has borne an official character.

An enormous reception was given at the German Legation at the Hague, at which the Dutch prince consort made a welcoming speech, and many columns in the German papers are proof that the Germans are not to be allowed to imagine that the colonies are gone forever. According to German papers, the colonial troops had a tremendous reception in Berlin, the crowds waiting for hours in the street as the train was four hours late.
