An Outport Opinion.

(Harbor Grace Standard.)
Ultra-Partisan Politics rears its ugly head in all directions. Look, for example, at the movement for inter-denominational education which the Telegram stated has the good wishes of every intelligent public-spirited citizen. We may have to stand aside in despair of any one of the parties seeking the suffrage of the electors having the courage and the enlightened look-ahead to manfully make non-sectarian (but not by any means godless but eminently godly, goodly) education one of the main planks of its platform. But we have the right, we and everyone who has faith in that way of not only providing a good education for the bulk of our people now condemned to a poor one or to practically none as in the case of our outport boys like one of our Victoria Cross lads and numerous other lads and lasses through no fault of theirs but likewise a way to promoting a good feeling towards one's fellow-citizens of all creeds and a more united working together to build up our common country—we have the right to cry hands off to those on both sides that are intent on making political capital for their own selfish ends out of it, reckless of what bitterness of feeling and other mischief they cause. Such is only one out of many proofs of the very low state to which party politics has fallen. There should be no attempt to drag in religious rancor. Our Roman Catholic fellow countrymen being as we have before now said not included in the movement owing to their known unanimous policy on the subject, as a matter of practical politics, the movement should be dealt with entirely on its merits—calmly and intelligently—by the remaining two-thirds of the population. Unscrupulous partisans would fain set the whole of this portion if not the whole population at variance to suit their vile ends. The question for this portion to settle is how to give their children all thru the Island, the Outports in particular, the very best education possible at the lowest cost. Newspaper editors and other writers that use such unpatriotic tactics should be ashamed of themselves and be frowned down upon by all decent men in any party. The using of these and other "beastly" weapons tends to make all decent people of any sense disgusted and to cast their votes against instead of for the parties employing them. Hard hits are all right, but let them be fair.

POST TOASTIES

Sir Michael P. Cashin.

AS HE IS SEEN BY THE PEOPLE.

Editor Evening Telegram
Dear Sir,—We were very interested in a letter that appeared in the Telegram from a New Yorker, in which he voices his admiration of Sir Michael Cashin. I suppose it must have struck an outsider as uncommon, but we who know him, since he was born would be more surprised, if he didn't do the generous thing. All his life he has been noted amongst his own people, for being square, generous and charitable. Ask anyone from Broad Cove to the Goules and the answer will be the same.

FERRYLAND PROUD OF HIM.

Of course we are proud of having given a Prime Minister to the Dominion, and we are prouder still of his record as Minister of Finance.

In the troublous times of the war, as a financier, his enormous surplus revenues found him to be the ablest man that ever filled that position, and in the troublous times ahead, he seems to be the very man who by experience and character was called by nature, to take the helm of the ship of state. His courage and skill as a financier, were proved beyond doubt, in the complete success of the Victory Loan launched by him. His success in that matter surprised even his warmest friends and admirers, and it proves that he has the vision and the knowledge absolutely necessary for the occupant of the chair of Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, in the coming years when the problems of reconstruction will tax the best abilities of Newfoundland's ablest and most reliable representatives.

He may not be Perfection, and we don't claim that he is perfect,—far from it. He can get as hot as pepper occasionally, but we do claim, that he is square,—his word, is as good as his bond, and that you can rely on him to the death.

He is a sincere friend, but he is a fair fighter when called on to defend his and our rights, and above all, he has a kindly heart: he is broad and fair and generous, and charitable,—especially charitable, in a quiet, unostentatious manner. But you won't find this out, except you will enquire, in a grieving household, or where widows or orphans are congregated.

HIS PRIVATE CHARACTER.

His public record for the last twenty five years speaks for itself, and every intelligent Newfoundland, can form—if he has not already formed—his own opinion. It is of success,—so far the most successful of any comparatively young man in the Dominion—As for his private character, we who have known him all our lives, are proud to boast, that he is the highest type of god-fearing christian, and that we believe the interests of the Dominion were never in abler or more honest hands than those of our Prime Minister, Sir Michael P. Cashin. You can trust Cashin to the limit, and he'll never betray you—the same is true when applied in the interest of his native land.

Yours truly,
CAPA HAYDEN.

Her Friends Note A Big Change in Mrs. Edna Findley

She Had Suffered Nearly Every Hour For Six Years—Tanlac Restores Her.

"Every time I meet any of my friends now, they tell me how well I look, and it must be true, for since I commenced taking Tanlac I am enjoying better health than I have for many years," said Mrs. Edna Findley, who lives at 29 Victoria Road, Halifax, the other day.

"Over six years ago," continued Mrs. Findley, "I began to suffer from stomach trouble, and my general health just seemed to give down. During the past year, my condition has been very much worse, and I suffered nearly every hour of my life, both night and day. I didn't have any appetite, and sometimes for two or three days at a time I wouldn't eat a bite. When I did attempt to eat a little I would suffer terribly afterwards with cramping pains in the pit of my stomach. I felt drowsy and sleepy all the time, lost weight, and kept getting weaker all the time. I finally got to where I had to spend more than half of my time in bed. I was very restless at night, and never slept well. I was under treatment all the time, and took many different kinds of medicine, but instead of getting better, I gradually grew worse right along."

"Then I saw where some good reliable people right here in Halifax were recommending Tanlac, very highly, and I decided to give this medicine a trial. I have only taken three bottles of Tanlac so far, but I can truthfully say that I feel like a different person already. Why, I never had such an appetite, and never relished my meals so much as I do now. I am gaining in weight right along, and I never have a sign of indigestion or stomach trouble of any kind. I sleep like a child every night, and am so well and strong that I can do all my housework without the least trouble. I never have that drowsy, sleepy feeling any more, and, in fact, I feel perfectly well in every way all the time. Tanlac is the most wonderful medicine I have ever seen, and I never lose an opportunity to recommend it to others."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac Representative.
