Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. M. M. Young of Spaniard's Bay was in town on Monday.

Mr. Fullerton, representing the Imperial Oil Co. Ltd., St. John's was in town during last week.

Mr. John T. Watts, having spent the winter with his parents at St. John's, came to town during last week. His many friends here are pleased to have him with them again.

The members of St. Catherine's Girl's Guild intend holding their annual tea on Thursday, May 4.

Mr. Karl S. Trapnell, Eye-Specialist is at present with us and will remain for a few days on a professional visit.

The heavy westerly gales of late have broken up the ice which had packed in the harbor, and at the present moment it is open; only from the Riverhead to some distance above the Point of Beach remains frozen.

The somewhat mild weather and bright sun has played havoc with the snow for the last week or so, and we have the bare roads in many places. In the lanes and on the hills there is still a great amount but it is surprising to see even what one day's sun will do for these snow banks.

A motor car was seen on Water Street to-day. That's a good sign that winter is over, even though the car in question was only out to get an airing, etc., etc.

On Friday night last a very interesting and educating address was given by Rev. E. W. Forbes, B.D., of St. John's on the Scout Movement, same being held in St. Paul's Hall, which was packed to the doors, many to be content with standing space. Rev. F. S. Coffin, who has charge of our H. Grace Troop, introduced the speaker. Then followed the lecture, which was well worth hearing; the Boy Scout Organization being outlined by the Rev. gentleman, from its origin, until the present day. What is expected of a scout, and what the training he receives means to himself, to those with whom he comes in contact, and its effect in the community of which he forms a part. For our boys of to-day, will be our men of to-morrow. He also referred to the part they played during the world war and made mention of the troop we have here, with an appeal to the citizens to interest themselves in the boys, and further the boy scout in our midst. At the close of the lecture some very interesting slides were thrown on the screen, showing the scouts of St. John's, and in Nova Scotia, also some local scenes. Rev. Forbes is chief of the movement in this country. Then came a vote of thanks to the speaker, which was proposed by Judge Oke, seconded by Rev. W. R. Higgin, and supported by Father Dinn; which was tendered by the chairman, Rev. Coffin. An invitation had been given at the meeting to all the ladies and gentlemen present who were desirous of assisting the boys, to remain behind, when the matter of forming a local council and Ladies Auxiliary was considered. A collection amounting to $25.00 was taken up during the evening, which will go to benefit the funds of our local troop. —COR.

THE THREE STAGES.—Going, going, gone. At last those cracked cups are smashed. It's lucky they lasted until we could get White and Gold Cups and Saucers for 23c. each at STEELE'S.

Huts Constructed of Coral Rock.

In the early days the Bermuda colonists lived in houses built of a beautiful native cedar. Now they live in houses built of coral rock. It is usually cut on the premises. There are two things in the islands that tend to bring about social equality. One is the presence of this material, which can be sawed out with a handsaw and after some exposure is ready for use, and the other is the total absence of wells. It is necessary to get all the drinking water from the clouds, and that, as a measure of health, requires that every roof from which the water is derived should be kept clean by whitewash. The palace of the rich man and the hovel of the poor man are equally white, equally substantial looking and equally clean, and this circumstance furnishes singular superficial evidence of the fairly equal distribution of wealth and comfort in this little community.

Guards Comrades Smoker.

VERY ENJOYABLE FUNCTION.

Under the auspices of the Methodist Guards Comrades Association a most enjoyable smoker was held in the Club's Rooms last night with Mr. James S. Ayre as chairman, who opened the proceedings with an address, followed by a chorus. The programme which was interspersed with songs from the song sheet of the Club, consisted of a Violin Duet by Messrs. A. E. Chown and W. Brett; Recitations by Messrs. F. Halley, A. Holmes, G. Rabbits, F. Gushue, R. Hearder; Songs by Macklin, Young, Canning; a selection by the Pittman Bros. and a "cornet" solo by Mr. Cowan. At the close of the concert the chairman again addressed the gathering, thanking those who had assisted in making the entertainment such a success. mar14,tt

A Faithful Shepherd.

Last fall a rancher drove his flocks of sheep down from the grazing lands in the Mount Adams forest reserve, Washington, to winter quarters near White Salmon. In a fog he lost forty head and a dog. No trace of the wanderers was found in a week's diligent search. The other day the dog turned up with thirty-nine sheep, all but one having watered somewhere under the guidance of the watchful dumb shepherd. The rancher declares the dog must have lived on rabbits, as at all his herders the one only had an aptitude in leaping upon sleeping hares. The sheep if properly guarded would easily have found pasture in the sheltered valleys of Mount Adams slopes. Sheepmen are at a loss to account for the fact that the dog was able to keep off predatory animals, for during the winter wolves, cougars and coyotes prey continually on sheep.

New Hebrides Discovered in 1606.

The first white man to see the rugged outline of the coast of the New Hebrides, which rise abruptly out of the deep sea in the hurricane zone of the tropics, was Quiros, the Portuguese navigator in 1606. Believing he had discovered the great Southern Continent which was at that time the dream of navigators, Quiros may be compared to Columbus, who thought he had found a route to India when he sighted the palm-fringed shores of the West Indies. He called his discovery Australia del Espíritu Santo, which has been shortened by traders to Santo, and is applied to the largest island of the group. Some of the other large mountainous and partly volcanic islands are Ambrym, Anatanam, Aurora, Apl. Pentecost, Eronanga, Mallicolo, and Tanna, the home of the "great lighthouse of the southern Isles," Tanna Volcano, which bursts forth brilliantly every three or four minutes. The ingredients of an excellent meringue consist of two egg whites, half teaspoon vanilla extract, four teaspoons sugar and a pinch of salt.

About $9.00 worth of Beaver Board will cell your room.
If you use imitation Beaver Board you may appear to save $1.00 or $1.50; just to size imitation Beaver Board will cost twice as much.

Beaver Board is guaranteed to last as long as your house, therefore is worth more than any imitation.

An imitation of Beaver Board may look like Beaver Board, may even appear better, but how will it look in a couple of years' time?

Twelve years ago we put up 2 panels of Beaver Board on the OUTSIDE of our office.

It has been exposed to the rain, sun and wind of 12 years, but it's still good.

Beaver Board is better than any imitation can be.
