MT. SALEM

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday were busy days here as Mr. Learn was having the building he recently purchased, moved on his place for a barn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Appleford, of Lyons, were week end visitors at the homes of A. Boyd and E. V. Learn.

Digging potatoes and picking apples seems to be the order of the day here.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks to the Directors of the Mutual Fire Insurance Co., for their prompt payment of the money due me for the loss of my barn by fire; and I wish to also thank my neighbors for their kindness in helping to move the Old Union Church to my place to be fitted up for a barn. I am very grateful to them all and their kindness will not be forgotten by myself and wife.

MR. and MRS. E. V. LEARN.

CALTON

Quite a number from here attended the Lakeview anniversary, which was conducted by Rev. A. J. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gibson spent Sunday at J. Finn's, Fairview.

Clifton, the youngest son of Mr. W. Wiley passed away early Sunday morning after a long illness. The funeral was held on Monday, and was conducted by Rev. C. R. Durrant. It was well attended.

S. Elgie returned from the west last week.

Hallowe'en was held on Saturday evening, and a large number of the young people enjoyed themselves by dressing in comical costumes and visiting the neighbors. Treats were furnished by some. A few pieces of mischief were performed, but no great damage was done.

COPENHAGEN

Mr. and Mrs. E. McTaggart and family and Mrs. McTaggart, spent Sunday in Avon.

The ladies of this vicinity met and organized a Patriotic League and are already working on comforts for our soldiers at the front.

The Ladies' Aid held their annual Hallowe'en Social in the Hall last Friday evening and as usual a jolly time was spent. A large number were masked, a good program was rendered, also an abundance of refreshments served. The proceeds amounted to over $17. During the evening, contests were held guessing the number of potatoes in two different measures, also a half bushel of turnips. The proceeds from this amounted to $3.70 and a friend kindly made the sum $5, which was used by the Patriotic League for the purchase of yarn.

We are all pleased to hear that Mrs. H. Watts is improving.

Mr. W. Dickenson, of California, has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. B. Lindsay.

Mrs. E. Leeson and daughter are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gillott.
