The biggest value ever offered in connection with the EXPRESS is as follows. For the small sum of 75c, we will send to any address in Canada or the U.S., from now until Jan. 1st 1902, THE AYL-MER EXPRESS, the Family Herald and Weekly Star and the two great premium pictures "Christ in the Temple," and "Home from the War." Either picture alone is worth double the money. This offer is open only to June 30th as the supply of pictures is limited, and cannot be promised after that date. Samples of pictures may be seen at this office after next Saturday. Any of our present subscribers who are paid in advance, or who will pay in advance, may have the Herald and Star to Jan. 1902 and the two pictures for 50 cents.

Mr. McAllister's brother, and father-in-law.

Printers' Ink is a poor medium for a man to gush in. Business after all, is business, and a short, straight story, giving bluntly the necessary facts for a purchaser to remember, is a great deal better than a eulogy that bears about the same relation to the goods sold that an epitaph on a tombstone does to the departed Mary Ann, who has been planted under it.

What to do with one's summer vacation is a perennial question. Most people have neither the money nor the wish to go to an expensive, overcrowded seaside or mountain resort, and yet every man needs a few days devoted to pleasure and a complete rest at least once a year. The Cosmopolitan for July gives a solution of the problem in a well-written, illustrated article, "A Houseboat—The Modern Palace." Undoubtedly a house-boat offers a cheap and comfortable vacation, and the ranks of its devotees are constantly swelling.

The board of Alma College, St. Thomas, has appointed as teacher of painting and art drawing Mr. William St. Thomas Smith, the leading Canadian colorist and well-known marine painter. Mr. Smith has made most successful nature studies in repeated and extended sketching trips in the best scenery regions in Europe and America and his water color sketches are especially have an exceptional place in art exchanges. The directorship of the Alma Art School still remains as for the past twenty years in charge of Mr. Frederick M.
Bell-Smith, who will be non-resident director and Mr. St. Thomas Smith, resident director of studies of art.

order to secure the 15c qualities it will be necessary for you to be here at 10 o'clock sharp. 3 Farthings.

The problem of keeping the boy on the farm is simplicity itself compared with keeping the people at home in Aylmer on a public holiday. Some drove to Burwell and some to Bruce and other cool spots, while others watched the cricket match. The town had no celebration and things passed off very quietly. The thermometer soared away up to 96 again.

The Aylmer cricket club will take their annual week's tour this year, commencing Monday the 15th inst, when they will play the London city team, in London. The following day they will play the Forest team, on the Woolsey Barracks grounds.
On Tuesday night they leave for Cleveland and play the club of that city, on Wednesday returning to London for a game the following day with the Woolsey Barracks team. On Friday they go to Chatham, and conclude the weeks playing on their own grounds here, where they will meet the strong Brantford team. We hope to hear of their success, and are glad to see they will play so many strong teams, as it will do them good, win or lose.

Dr. Cross closed his pastorate of the Aylmer Baptist church here on Sunday last —a pastorate that has been uplifting and widespread in its influence, and fruitful in good results. His farewell sermons were of a high order of excellence, and could not have been more appropriate. The congregations both morning and evening were unusually large and appreciative. At the close of the morning service the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was observed. At this service, which was very largely attended, he gave the right hand of fellowship to nine new members—three received by letter, one by experience and five by baptism. Immediately after the service a vote by ballot was taken to extend a call to Rev. A. J.
Vining, as a successor to Dr. Cross. The vote was practically unanimous, only three ballots being marked "no." Afterwards the call was made unanimous by a standing vote. In the afternoon Dr. Cross took charge of the Sunday school, it being review Sunday. This session was a very impressive one and will long be remembered.
It is indeed very gratifying to Dr. Cross to know that the church in all its interests was so prosperous during any time of his pastorate as at present. He leaves, enjoying the delightful fact, that the Aylmer Baptist church is in a vastly better condition now than when he took the pastorate of it two years and a half ago. He has a valuable assistant in his work in the person of Mrs.
Cross. Her noble traits of character carry an influence that invariably tells for good in any locality where she may be. It is worthy of mention here that the choir rendered very acceptable music, which added interest to these farewell services.
