OWEN SOUND

June 14th was Children's Day in the B.M.E. Sunday School. The turn out was fairly good and the children did splendidly with their singing of the Sunday School selections. Essays from Mrs. A. Harrison and an instrumental duet by Mrs. C. Johnson were well received. The Superintendent, Thos. Green spoe of the Sunday School and of its work during his term of office the past 12 years; of the many changes in the work of the school, of Father Miller, known as Thomas Miller, who was the Supt. at that time and of the difficulties in getting teachers to teach the children and of he white people who sympathized with us in our work and came and helped us out in teaching the children, of Mrs. Rogers, wife of the pastor of a Presbyterian Church and through whose untiring efforts the first organ in our church was bought; of Miss Jennie Creasor, sister of our city Magistrate; Mrs. J. Dobie, now the wife of Mr. J. C. Forrester, of Hamilton, one of its chief architects; Mrs. J. B. Straight, a faithful worker in church and Sunday School, Mrs. Hinks, wife of the pastor of the Canadian Methodist Church; Mr. W. P. Telford, M.P., for a term of years at Ottawa; Samuel Graham, a boots and shoes merchant of our city; and others who assisted the work of our Sunday School and church, but the most of these are gone from works to reward but the seed of good that they had sown still grows in the hearts of our people and keeps them aglow.

The pastor, Rev. E. A. Richardson spoke very briefly on the work of the school and urged all to be faithful to their calling. ?

Mr. Landson Taylor has taken the position as chief cook on the steamer Haggard. He is the youngest chef on the great lakes. We wish him a successful season and a safe return to us.

The Garden Party at the home of Mrs. A. Smith on Friday, June 12th was a success, both socialy and financially. The proceeds amounted to over $16.00, which was paid to the pastor, for which he thanked all who participated to make it the success.

LONDON

Rev. E. M. Woods, of Detroit, Mich. was the guest of the Hill St. Baptist Church on Sunday and preached two very inspiring sermons. Rev. Woods expects to be with us for a week.

Mrs. Fred Harris is spending her vacation with her daughter, Mrs. Phillips, in Detroit.

Thirty-six men from the Wesley United Church of Canada, (formerly Askin Street Methodist) assembled in the main body of the Bethemanuel Church at 10 a.m. and conducted a very impressive service for the brotherhood of our church. The address for the occasion was given by Mr. Kitchener. Alderman F. B. Kilbourn the president of the visiting brotherhood, presided. A very impressive solo entitled: "Building for Eternity" was rendered by Mr. Nicholos, of the visiting men.

Sunday, June 14th, was observed as Children's Day in the B.M.E. Church. Three beautiful services were held under the auspices of the Sunday School department in the auditorium of the church, assisted by a seven piece orchestra. The pastor, Rev. F. O. Stewart conducted the morning service at which time the children were given an interesting address from the subject; "Wise Little Folk." Text, Prov. 30: 24-28. These four little creatures teach us a very strong lesson said the speaker and may more especially be applied to each child's life. The ant teaches us to prepare for the future. Spiritually as well as materially. The Coney teaches the lesson of safety, and the locust, the lesson of unity, while from the spider we learn the lesson of having an influence and spreading it in a good place. Special numbers were rendered at the afternoon and evening services by a full chorus of children and young people, accompanied by the orchestra. Many visitors attended the services during the day, including Rev. S. R. Drake and Mrs. M. J. (Lewis) Brown, who gave short talks to the children which were very encouraging. Vocal solos were rendered by the Misses V. Knox, B Fountain, Mrs. J. Brown and Paul Lewis, also Miss Florence Drake and Dorothy Moxley and James F. Jenkins jr. An outstanding feature of the day's program was the instituting of the cradle roll with nine infant babies as a beginner. Mrs. F. Steware, the superintendent distributed a certificate as an attestation of membership to each mother and child that was present and the roll was displayed to the audience with each babies name inscribed thereon. The day was a success in every detail. Much credit is due Miss Alice Drake for her untiring zeal in preparing the children for the day. Those who decorated the church for the occasion are also deserving of praise.
