RECRUITS FROM ALL QUARTERS

Ready to Rally Round the Flag in Africa.

Nearly 800 of the Fourth Contingent Now at Halifax-School Teacher at Malden Enlisted.

Windsor, April 23.-Joseph Beeman, a school teacher from Malden, has enlisted for service in South Africa.

Winnipeg, April 23.-Applications for enlistment in the fourth South African contingent continue to come in fast. There are now over 100 men waiting the opening of the recruiting office there.

The officers of the Winnipeg bar
Measure Passed by a Vote bine formed by J. P. Morgan, says a New York dispatch, will have a capital and the same of the Winnipeg barracks say the indications are that the number of recruits offering will be far in excess of those that can go.

Hamilton, April 23.-Eight more recruits for South Africa were sworn in yesterday. Thirteen recruits arrived from Brantford and Guelph, and as soon as enough more have been sworn in at Hamilton to make up a carload they will be sent to Halifax.

Windsor, April 23.-Col. Guillot announces that he has received definite word of the appointment of Sergt. J. G. Biggs as lieutenant in the new Canadian contingent; also that Sergt. John Northwood will receive a commission if the fifth battalion is added to the contingent now being organized. Both of these boys were with the first contingent. Sergt. Biggs will be the youngest officer in the contingent. Halifax, N. S., April 23 .- Recruits for the fourth contingent are coming in from all quarters, and the concentration camp at Willow Park is rapidly filling up. There are nearly 800 men there now. Troopers arrived yesterday from Toronto, New Brunswick, Sydney and Prince Edward Island. Ten men were enlisted in this city yesterday. Lieut.-Col. Irving has received instructions to enlist as many shoeingsmiths as possible. The work of fitting up the steamer Cestrian has commenced. A dispatch from Ottawa says that the first troopship will sail about May 2, but the agents of the Cestrian do not think the work of fitting the steamer will be completed by that time. MORE CASUALTIES. Ottawa, Ont., April 23.-The militia department has received a report from South Africa that Fred A. Kearns and Patrick McClinchy have been missing since March 27. The former is from Palmerston, Ont., and the other from Montreal. S. J. Cairns, of Ottawa, in dangerously ill at Bloemfontein. Corporal Howard wounded at Hart's River, is reported dangerously ill.

TUESDAY'S NOMINATIONS. Ottawa, April 22.-Mr. Donald Hector Maclean, of Hintonburg, is the unanimous choice of the Liberals of Carleton county as a candidate for the coming provincial campaign.

Brockville, April 22.—The annual meeting of the Liberals of Leeds took place at Delta today and was largely attended by representatives from all parts of the riding. A long list of candidates was put in nomination, but all retired in favor of Mr. C. E. Britton, who made a splendid speech, and asked for ten days in which to consider the matter.

He stated that the Highlanders asserted that the kilt, both in this and other campaigns, has been the healthiest kit and draw a common coach, weighing for active service, owing to the great thickness of cloth protecting the abdomen. Medical authorities state that the Highlanders have enjoyed greater immunity from stomachic troubles than the other troops, which is, indeed, proved by statistics. Col. Weir also asked whether the man who issued the order had ever worn the kilt.

Mr. Brodrick replied that the Highland regiments will retain the kilt for full dress, and instructions will be issued for providing a kilt of khaki or some invisible color on active service, as is now done in South Africa. He stated the uniform regulations are general for the whole army, and exception is made in the case of the Highlanders. The distinctive tartans of the Highland regiments will be pre-
