CHICAGO OLD BOYS COMING TWO SPECIALS TO

First Train Will Reach This City at 11:55 on Sunday Morning DODGE THE REAL ISSUE Over the Grand Trunk Railway-A Second Train Will Reach Here Twenty Minutes Later.

The Chicago London Old Boys are ket. They will be set up early Monday coming home in crowds.

This morning Mr. J. O. Weldon, the secretary, received a letter from Mr. C. Egelton, secretary of the Chicago Old Boys, stating that the first train would arrive in London at 11:55 and would arrive in London at 11:55 and would arrive in London at 11:55 and would arrive within twenty minutes of each other.

Many will come in during the week. Mr. Egelton states that a considerable number are doing this because three are no Sunday cars in London, and it would be impossible for them to get to their stopping places without them. The Chicago chaps are all enthus slasm, and there is no question that when they do arrive, they will give the citizens a chance to see how the boys from the Windy City can make themselves heard.

The official programme of sports for the Old Boys' Reunion has been issued by the Charlton Publishing Company, and will be distributed this week free.

Dr. Fred L. Wood and his committee have prepared a fine list of attractions; sufficient to furnish plenty of amusement for the visitors.

On Monday, the fun will begin. At noon there will be a parade of Old Boys from the market square to Queen's Park. Mr. J. W. Metherall is the marshal, and he has already received a slarge entry list. One of the features will be the auto parade. Valuable prizzes will be given for this feature, and it is expected that every auto in the city as well as those belonging to the visitors will be entered.

Then there will be the sports. Every event is intended for a laugh, and the
