Chiasso, Switzerland, Nov. 1 .- With a Chiasso, Switzerland, Nov. 1.—With a riew to bringing the war with Turkey FATHER VAUGHAN BLAMED uickly to an end, the Italian cabine accept peace immediately or else lose more teritory. This means that some of Turkey's valuable island possessions in the Mediterranean will be seized un-

This decision was reached at a series Rear-Admiral Aubrey and members of the cabinet. Aubrey arrived in Rome suddenly and secretly Monday morning. Lengthy interviews with the Premier and ministers of war, navy and foreign affairs followed. Definite arangements were made for sending the Italian fleet into action against Turkey's Mediterranean possessions.

It is understood that the new plans will be set into action as soon as the Marquis Di San Giuliano, minister of foreign affairs, can reach the necessary understanding with the interested powers. It is expected that Italy will continue to spare the Albanian coast in order to avoid complications along the Adriatic and in the Balkan states.

CORRESPONDENCE

Passing Over Canadian Physicians. To the Editor of The Advertiser:
What is the reason that Canadian physicians are overlooked when positions of prominence and honor are open? Why are these positions invariably filled by men from abroad?

I cannot feel any other way about it to the first rank. Be playing was no less perfected in the tender cadences and soothing harmonies of the concert last night. Two of his own compositions, "Aftivilight" and "Cantilene Rustique," are pleces of rare beauty and charm Sellars was assisted by William Short, the King's trumpeter, whose rendering of the historic coronation calls was truly wonderful.

The numbers given by the church choir added still further to the merits of an excellent programme, under the leadership of Mr. A. D. Jordan, organist. "The Homage Anthem" was unusually good. "I Was Glad When They Said Unito Me" was extremely well rendered.

DEATH OF SEVEN LEADS TO ARREST

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya was arrested last night after the police found that the death of Policeman Arthur Bissonette, a roomer at her home, was the seventh death in recent years occurring under her roof or under circumstances with which she was connected.
