FARMERS AT WORK MARKET IS SMALL

Fine Weather Keeps Tillers of Soil Close to Their Homes.

About eight loads of hay and a medium-sized shipment of hogs were the only offerings on the local market today. The farmers are so far behind in their work that they will not come to the market unless it is absolutely necessary, and as a result the attendance each day is very small.

The shipment of hogs today was not as large as usual, and the price was the same as announced on Saturday, $8 per cwt.

The price of hay today ranged from $16.

CONSERVATILE ORATORS

Not Within 500 Miles of Mr. Sutherland When Declaration

The Advertiser spoke to Mr. J. M. McEvoy about the statements made at Dorchester by the Conservative oracors declaring th he had induced Mr. Sutherland to sign a declaration as to his attitude on the abolish-the-bar

"They do me too great honor," said Mr. McEvoy. "I should be glad to assist in winning this election for Mr. Sutherland, but it so happens that I was not within 500 miles of Mr. Sutherland when the question of making a written declaration on that subject was first broached, nor was I nearer until after the whole matter was an accomplished fact. I knew nothing of it until I saw the reports in the press. I have no doubt the Tories would like to misrepresent the facts and make out there are two factions in the Liberal party. The declaration was secured by the temperance element of the Liberal party, who have the control of this election, and upon whom the responsibility for this election rests, but t me add that the Liberal party the temperance party, and every Liberal in the vicinity, including myself, is straight behind Mr. Sutherland.'

MR. SUTHERLAND DEMANDS RETRACTION OF SLANDERS

Notifies Charles Finch to Apologize at Once For Statements a. Temperance Meeting Regarding Candidate's Character.

Mr. William Sutherland, the Independent candidate, does not propose to stand idly by and hear himself standered.

As a result, he has sent a letter to Mr. Charles Finch, president of the London Township Temperance League, demanding an apology before Tuesday morning or a writ for slander would be issued against him.

It will be remembered that Mr. Finch was one of the prominent speak ers at the recent temperance convention in the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Finch declared that he had asked Mr. Sutherland if he were a temperance man, to which Mr. Finch says Mr. Sutherland replied that he was not. REPORTED BY THEIR PRESS.

Further, Mr. Finch is said to have stated that when he met Mr. Sutherland a few days after, Mr. Sutherland was the worse of liquor. These statements were made in the open meeting and were so reported in the

Mr. Sutherland has become tired of such misrepresentation, and is desirous of having Mr. Finch prove his statements. "Mr. Finch asked me whether or not I was a teetotaller," said Mr. Sutherland. "I told him I was not, He did not say anything regarding my temperance sentiments."

Mr. Sutherland particularly objected to the latter part of Mr. Finch's state ment, and an apology will be due on Tuesday, or a writ for slander will follow. Notice has been forwarded.

It is no secret in London Township that Mr. Finch is a well-known Conservative enthusiast. It is expected that his reckless statements at the temper ance meeting will cause him some trouble.
