AFTER MEASLES Whooping-Cough or Scarlet Fever

in a critical period—weakens throats, delicate bronchial tubes and unsound lungs often follow; sometimes impaired sight or hearing.

But if SCOTT'S EMULSION is taken promptly and regularly after the fever subsides it quickly restores pure blood and strengthens the lungs. Its nourishing force restores appetite, strength and energy.

SCOTT'S EMULSION contains just the elements nature requires to restore sound health; it is totally free from alcohol or harmful drugs. Children relish it.

Be Ready to Enjoy Christmas

PLAN your gift-giving this year on a sensible, businesslike basis—start by sending for the "Ryrie" Gift Book. Just an hour or two spent in looking through it will solve your gift problems, not only for Christmas, but for the coming year.

You intended doing this last year, but each day put off "until-to-morrow." The result was that Christmas came and went, not merry but unhappy, because you had so much to do at the last minute.

Your gifts did not represent your tastes—did not satisfy you in any particular. You paid more than you intended—went to all the bother and expense of parceling and mailing them.
If any of them went astray you had to stand the loss.

Profit by this experience—get the "Ryrie" Gift Book early.
Order your gifts from it and order early. We will send them for you—pay all charges —assume all risk of loss or damage. This will leave you free to enjoy your Christmas as it should be enjoyed. Just put your name and address on a post card and say "Send Gift Book." It will go forward at once.

Have a Joy Shave! Oil Your Razor with 3-in-One

Always do this before and after shaving: Draw your "ordinary" or "safety" razor blade between thumb and forefinger moistened with a little 3-in-One Oil. Oil your strap, too.
Then you'll secure keenest edge in quickest time.

3-in-One Oil Prevents Rust from forming on the microscopic "teeth" which form the cutting edge of every razor blade. It's rust that dulls your razor, makes it "pull" and "tear." You can't remove all the lather particles out of those tiny teeth—but 3-in-One Oil will positively wash off any rusting between shaves.

Right now buy a bottle of 3-in-One Oil. Read the label.
The look with the bottle tells you hundreds of other helpful uses, indoors and out.

For sale at all good hardware, drug, grocery and general stores. 1 oz. 15c.

JOHN LAIDLAW NOMINATED BY TEMPERANCE DELEGATES FOR E. MIDDLESEX CONTEST

Selected as Candidate by Convention Tuesday To Contest the Riding in the Coming By-Election.

Marked unanimity on the part of the half hundred delegates, representing the churches and temperance workers of East Middlesex characterized the nominating of Mr. John W. Laidlaw, as temperance candidate for the east riding on Tuesday afternoon. Prof.
James H. Eowman, county president, opened the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, and explained that it had been called by the Middlesex County executive of the Dominion Temperance Alliance to consider the temperance issue in the east riding in view of the approaching provincial by-election.

Professor Bowman was nominated chairman, and Mr. Thomas Baty, secretary, of the convention, and following a discussion as to whether the press should be excluded, an address by Rev. Ben H. Spence and a report by Professor Bowman and Rev. Mr.
Bayley, of their interview with Mr.
John McFarlane, the Conservative candidate, as to his stand on the temperance issue, three candidates were nominated. They were: Edwin Mc-Leod, of West Nisour, nominated by Rev. John Mahan, of Thorncliffe; John W. Laidlaw, of Westminster, nominated by Thomas Ramsay, and E. S.
Hunt, of Scottsville, nominated by E.
T. Bainard. Messrs. McLeod and Hunt asked to be allowed to withdraw from their nominations, leaving the field to Mr. Laidlaw, whom a committee was appointed to meet at once, as he was not present at the convention.

Mr. Laidlaw, in his address, explained that the aim of the Dominion Alliance was prohibition, and the abolition of the barroom throughout Canada, but that the local option was one of the effective methods by which the alliance was fighting the traffic.
He outlined the steady growth of local option in Ontario in the last several years, and explained the necessity of the temperance people taking action in local elections in addition to local option contests.

The Alliance wanted to leave party politics out of the temperance question, but the temperance people must not be left to the parties to be settled. The temperance people in party politics had to choose only between Tory yellow dogs and Liberal black cats. He reviewed recent by-elections and claimed that both Conservative and Liberal candidates had gone down to defeat because they neglected to take an open and avowed stand for the Alliance platform.

Has No Temperance Policy.
The Conservative party, in Ontario have no temperance policy," said Mr.
Spence. "We may as well face that fact right now. They say they are standing out on their own, but in my opinion no Government ever had a poorer record on the temperance question than the present one. The Liberal party is the only party in Ontario at the present time that has a temperance policy, but the Liberal party must learn a lesson.
They must put up candidates in harmony with their policy, or they can't win."

Rev. Mr. Spence spoke in high praise of Mr. N. W. Rowell and his policy, but emphasized his statement that the party must nominate men in harmony with its policy in order to gain the support of the temperance people.

Need Men in Sympathy.
"I want prohibition, I don't care whether the Liberal party, or the Conservative party give it," said Mr. Spence.
He pointed out the large aggregated majority which East Middlesex gave for local option in the last contests in the four townships comprising the riding, and asked whether it would be right for a man not in sympathy with the temperance platform to represent such a riding in the legislature.

"At the present time the Liberal policy is the best before the country. If the Conservative party brings in a better policy tomorrow we will support it instead," he said.

Rev. Mr. Bayley reported that he and Professor Bowman had waited on Mr.
McFarlane, the Conservative candidate.
The following interview took place:

Alliance Committee.—We have no desire to oppose your election, Mr. McFarlane, if your position on the temperance issue is satisfactory to the Alliance.

Mr. McFarlane's Views.
Mr. McFarlane.—I'm a temperance man.
I have always voted for temperance measures but once. We have a good law. I do not think we should embarrass the Government by asking for more.

Alliance Committee.—If a vote to abolish the bar came up in the Legislature, what would you do?

Mr. McFarlane.—I will cross no bridges till I come to them.

Reporters Withdraw.
While the convention deliberated on the question of choosing a candidate, the press was asked to withdraw, on the motion of Rev. R. J. Garbutt. Rev. Dr.
McCrae, seconded by Rev. John Mahan, expressed Mr. Garbutt's motion with an amendment to have the meeting open.
Following a close vote and considerable discussion, a compromise was effected.

The Woman Who Travels Alone No woman need dread crossing the ocean alone if she carries a little 3-in-One Oil. It will keep her skin moist, and her hair soft. It is a wonder traveling alone or with children.

HAD INDIGESTION.

Almost Despaired of Ever Getting Well.

When your food has not been properly digested, your body has not received the benefit it should. The exertions of the gastric juice have been confined entirely to removing the unassimilated, undigested portions of food, which they cannot properly digest as speedily as possible from the body, therefore only giving the blood a small percentage of nourishment with which to feed the tissues.
No wonder then that Indigestion and Dyspepsia attack the stomach. No medicine can surpass Burdock Blood Bitters as a cure for this particular disease.
It regulates the bowels, promotes perfect digestion, makes pure blood, tones the stomach, and thus restores perfect health to the debilitated system.

Mrs. Mary MacKay, Hunter's Mountain, N.S., writes:—"I was troubled with Indigestion for more than ten years.
I tried several Doctor's medicines claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. After taking two bottles I was completely cured. My appetite which was very poor, is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings. I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone suffering from Indigestion."

CLEVELAND FACES BREAD FAMINE THROUGH STORM

Fifteen Hundred Babies Have Not Had Milk For Thirty-Six Hours.

FACTORIES ARE CLOSING

City Under Two Feet of Snow and Distribution of Food Is Handicapped.

[Canadian Press.]

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 12.—With the city under from two to six feet of snow, the problem of distributing the available food and coal supplies in the city caused the greatest anxiety today.
Fifteen hundred babies have been without milk for thirty-six hours, and prospects of getting any milk into the city are not very good, but of other food except green stuff, a fairly large supply is on hand. The big milk companies yesterday made sales only to those who wanted it for babies, and the greater part of the demand was thus supplied.

Factories Shut Down.

Factories began shutting down yesterday because of the shortage of coal, and they may not be able to open for a week. Retail dealers say a famine of coal for dwelling houses and apartment houses depends on deliveries, which must come by rail. The big triple prices were paid to the few teamsters who would haul produce from the cars in the railroad yards to the central market house, and at noon yesterday, the supply there had been sold out.

"We are trusting to Providence for tomorrow's supply," said one stall holder, as he sold the last bit of food on his shelves.

Meat, eggs, flour and butter in sufficient quantities to last several days are in the downtown groceries, but in the suburbs, where it has been impossible to carry supplies, grocers have almost empty shelves.

Failure to replenish the yeast supply, inability of employees to get to work, and the difficulty of deliveries have brought the bread situation almost to the famine point. Most of the dealers were caught unprepared by the sudden onset of the piles, and the city may suffer severely.

DEMURE "QUAKER GIRL" ATTRACTIVE AS EVER

Chorus of Pretty Musical Play Appeals to a Large Audience.

Clean, tuneful and sparkling with wit, the Quaker Girl is presented at the Grand Tuesday night, after a year's absence, repeated the success it scored on its first presentation in London.
There was a large audience and that it was an appreciative one was clearly indicated in the applause, enthusiasm and encores that greeted the efforts of the company.

No sweeter or more winsome Quaker Girl could have been imagined than Bernice McCabe. Young, blessed with a wonderfully sweet voice, gifted with an ability to portray her character as it was intended to be played and possessed a personal charm and beauty that won her audience, she carried the title role on her pretty shoulders to a highly finished conclusion.

To Victor Morley, as Anthony (Tony Chute, naval attaché of the U. S. embassy in Paris, and Harry Short, as Jeremiah, the backsliding Quaker, the comedy of the play was intrusted. It fell into capable hands.
Without even flinching on the vulgar comedy and wit that Morley and Short presented in almost inexhaust-ible quantities, was of that kind which entertains and sparks. Morley took the heavier end of the fun-making, but Short was hardly a whit behind him. He shared honors with Connie Mac, the dumpy little Phoebe Snow, ladies' maid.

The other members of the cast were excellent. Phil Moore, as Prince Carlo, took his solo work in a more than meritorious manner. His voice was pleasant.

While the music of "The Quaker Girl" was uniformly good, it is rather peculiar in that it contains no one song that could be singled out. "Come to the Ball" was possibly the most popular number.

The chorus was a large one and well costumed. The piece itself was adequately staged.

A feature of the performance was the presence of the Western Medical

When Back Aches, Watch Kidneys!

If Neglected, Serious Results
Follow.

When the kidneys are clogged up and inactive, nature always warns you.
Backache is one of the first symptoms.
You may also be troubled with disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders; have attacks of lumbago or rheumatism; become nervous, tired, or feel all worn out; puffy swellings show under the eyes, or in the feet and ankles; or the urine becomes light and pale, dark-colored or cloudy. If such symptoms are neglected, dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease, which so often prove fatal, may result.

It is not only dangerous but needless for you to suffer and endure the torments of these troubles, when a little Croxone will quickly and surely end all such misery.

There is no more effective remedy known for the prompt relief and cure of such troubles, because it cleans out the clogged up kidneys and makes them work properly. It soaks right in through the walls and linings; cleans out the little filtering cells and glands; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and waste matter, and makes the kidneys filter and sift the poisons from the blood and drive it out of the system.

This new, scientific preparation is entirely different from other remedies.
It is so quick-acting and effective that it is practically impossible to take it without results.

An original package costs but a trifle and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone should fail in a single case.

Three doses a day, for a few days, is often all that is ever needed to end the worst backaches; relieve rheumatic pains or overcome sleep-disturbing urinary disorders.

College students in a body. It was their night, and they made the most of it. The chorus and the principals were the black and purple favors, presented by the boys, while the front of the stage and the boxes were draped in the college colors. The college songs and yells of the students made a rather unusual "between-acts" specialty.

The second performance of "The Quaker Girl" will be presented this evening.

—and she has it yet. The Peerless of to-day is of course a much better range than the one grandmother bought. Looks better. Cooks better. And uses less coal. The oven is of quick-heating steel—the flues perfectly proportioned—all of which saves fuel. The doors drop, forming shelves to draw out the cooking dishes. The top raises for broiling. The grates work without sticking. And the appearance! Grandmother admired the new Peerless with its plain heavy nickel and its pure white porcelain doors. But yet—she clings to her own Peerless.
The faithful old companion of her earlier culinary adventures still has—and always will have—a place in her home.
