Rev. J. G. Falls and family moved from this city to Port Stanley on Wednesday and they were given a cordial welcome by the members of the church over which Mr. Falls has been placed by the London conference. The ladies of the congregation furnished tea, and made the day one which the new pastor and his family will long remember.

The Old Boys' Reception Committee realized $99.70 by the band concert at Springfield Thursday night. Fifty-four dollars was made from the sale of flowers, $5.70 from dancing fees, and $40 was the contribution of the Street Railway Company. The Champion Counselor, of Rouse's Point, N. Y., June 22, contains the following note of interest to the friends and relatives here of Mr. Joseph Hopkins:—"Early yesterday morning Dallas Robinson, wife of Joseph Hopkins, died at her home, five street, having given birth to a son Sunday. The babe is living, and appears to be in good health. Mrs. Hopkins was but twenty-one years of age. Her death is a most distressing affliction, and calls forth expressions of sympathy from many friends who esteemed her very highly. She was of a bright cheerful, lively disposition, and was held in warm affection by her associates. For some years she was organist in Christ Church, in which she was a faithful member. We are told that it is the present intention to hold the funeral from Christ Church tomorrow morning at nine o'clock."

School Board's Action at Law Is Likely to Fall Flat.

The Board's Ends Defeated By Its Own Members—There Will Be Two Fewer Trustees Next Year—Last Day at the Schools—Troubles of a Gum-Chewing Pupil.

A gentleman versed in municipal affairs believes he sees the finish of the School Board's action at law against the City Council in the matter of estimates. The fact of the affidavits from members of the School Board brought the Board up short, but if the action had gone on, it is said that the same statements as are contained in the affidavits would undoubtedly have been brought out.

The new election law will not materially change the personnel or numbers of the School Board as at present. Trustees who go to the people for election will have their names voted upon as will be done in the case of the Aldermen. But when the voting is all over there will be only two trustees fewer than now. The usual number of trustees will be elected from the Council as heretofore.

This was the last day at the schools for the summer. Holidays will follow for two months. As may be expected, there was little doing in the school rooms. The classes were thinned by the absence of pupils already off to the country for the holidays, and the day was not done before many teachers were aboard of trains going in all directions. City Treasurer Pope had early calls from the teachers.

The school insurance has been readjusted. One hundred and sixty-two thousand two hundred dollars in premiums has been divided among sixteen city agents.

The Board of Education meets tonight to ratify the coal contract. Coal is expected to take a jump of 25 cents per ton on July 1.

The Aberdeen School case, where a teacher is alleged to have unduly thrashed a pupil, has a peculiar feature or two. It appears that the teacher involved was good enough to preserve gum found in the possession of pupils until after school hours when the gum was returned to the owners. A strict rule of the Board is that pupils shall not be permitted to chew anything in school.

The teacher took gum from the pupil who got the flogging later, and put it on a piece of paper on her desk, with the girl's name upon it. The pupil refused to take her gum away, and claims it was another girl's gum, and the teacher's claim, and there were red marks on the girl's back when the performance closed.

Mr. Justice Ferguson's order prohibiting Police Magistrate Love from disposing of the action of Bartram vs. the city of London, has not been served on His Worship as yet; consequently when the case was called at the police court yesterday it was adjourned for another week.

The proceedings brought by the weights and measures department against a local oil company for selling by the American instead of imperial measure, were withdrawn, the defendants paying the costs.

F. Dix and James Fortner were fined $1 each for refusing to place their rigs on the Market Square where directed by the clerk, Mr. Wilson.

A half a dozen wheelmen were fined $2 each for riding on the sidewalk.

John Reidy, of West London, was charged with allowing his cow to run at large. After hearing the evidence the Magistrate reserved his decision for a week.

A settlement was made in the case of Margaret Beard, who was charged by Dora Brown with keeping a vicious dog.

HUGH MINTYRE'S WILL.

Construction of It Before Chief Justice Sir W. R. Meredith—Cullen vs. McGregor Was a Complicated Matter.

The final sitting of the weekly High Court before long vacation was concluded yesterday before His Lordship Chief Justice Meredith.

The construction of the will of the late Hugh McIntyre, a wealthy Lobo farmer, was before Chief Justice for upwards of two hours. Judgment was reserved. Mr. Stuart appeared for the executors, M. D. Fraser for Hugh McIntyre, and E. Meredith, Q. C., for Richard McIntyre and his adult children. F. P. Betts for the official guardian, T. Macbeth for the First Lobo Baptist Church, James Magee, Q. C., for the Home Mission Board of the Baptist Church, and R. McKillop for the widow and two children of the deceased, D. Ross for John McIntyre.

Sullivan vs. Sullivan, motions were made by counsel for both parties to set aside an order made by the local judge, and both motions were dismissed. T. G. Meredith for the plaintiff, James Magee, Q. C., for the defendant. M. D. Fraser for Mrs. Nagle.

Cullen vs. McGregor was a very complicated matter, involving questions as to the validity of the board of a family of three persons for eight months, the payment of interest and the sum due on a mortgage.

There were two actions, with as many motions in each. In the first an appeal was made by the defendant against the report of the local master, the amount due for board, and in the second suit to recover under a mortgage, an appeal was made by the plaintiff on the question of interest, and by McGregor against the report of the master, holding that Cullen had paid interest on the mortgage in 1894. The appeals on the question of board and interest were dismissed, and the last appeal was allowed. M. D. Fraser for the plaintiff, J. M. McEvoy for the defendant.

THEIR ESTEEM FOR HIM.

Congregation Give a Tangible Expression to Rev. G. B. Sage.

Presented With a Purse of $250, an Address and a Month's Vacation—Twelve Years of Faithful Service Happily Marked.

At the garden party at St. George's Church Thursday evening the much-esteemed rector was the recipient of a tangible token of the respect in which he is held by his people. Very Rev. Dean Innes occupied the chair. The gift was made by the wardens of the church, on behalf of the congregation, and was a purse containing $250 and an address. The address was read by Rev. G. B. Sage, and was full of the warmest and kindest expressions of good-will and appreciation of the efforts of both Mr. and Mrs. Sage in their parish. It read as follows:—

Dear Mr. Sage, P. KINGSMILL. The presentation of the purse was made by Sam. Gibson, Esq. The rector was completely taken by surprise, but when the gift was returned to the company for their most valued good-will and handsome gift, after which the chairman made a very happy address, congratulating the pastor upon the very delightful relations existing between him and his congregation. Following the Dean, congratulatory addresses were given by Rev. W. T. Hill, C. C. Overton, W. A. Jones, E. N. English, and Messrs. R. J. Jones, S. Gibson, R. Kingsmill, and W. Ellis. Expressions of regret at not being able to be present, and accompanied with the rector, were given by Rev. H. Lordship the Bishop, Archdeacon Davis, Canon Richardson and Rev. J. H. Moorhouse.

In connection with the presentation, the wardens expressed the wish that the rector would take a month's vacation, and enjoy a well-earned period of rest.

Interest and the sum due on a mortgage. There were two actions, with as many motions in each. In the first an appeal was made by the defendant against the report of the local master, the amount due for board, and in the second suit to recover under a mortgage, an appeal was made by the plaintiff on the question of interest, and by McGregor against the report of the master, holding that Cullen had paid interest on the mortgage in 1894. The appeals on the question of board and interest were dismissed, and the last appeal was allowed. M. D. Fraser for the plaintiff, J. M. McEvoy for the defendant.

CONDUCTOR SMUCK DEAD

Well-known Railway Man Passes Away Very Suddenly.

Believed to be Recovering, From a Serious Accident, a Fatal Blood-clot Appeared—Employed for 30 Years on the G. T. R.

Conductor Martin Smuck, of Sarnia, died in Victoria Hospital about midnight Thursday night. His death was sudden and quite unexpected.

On the evening of June 21, while deceased was giving instructions to his engineer in the Grand Trunk yards here, he was knocked down by a passenger engine and his right leg was taken off below the knee. He was removed to the hospital, and had since given every indication of recovery. He was a powerful man, weighing 230 pounds, and seemed to be possessed of a great reserve of strength.

About 11.30 o'clock Thursday night deceased had a lunch of beer and biscuits. Shortly after he suffered from vomiting, but in a few minutes said to his nurse that he felt much better. His physician, Dr. English, had dressed his wound in the evening, and he had been in bed since that time, when the house surgeon made his rounds, Smuck was in splendid health, considering the serious character of the accident. After telling the nurse that he felt better, deceased said he was sleepy, and told the nurse she might go to dinner; that he was all right. The nurse went, and in 17 minutes he returned. She found Smuck dying, and in a few moments he passed away.

A post-mortem revealed the cause of death to be a clot of blood at the heart.

The late Martin Smuck had been in the employ of the G. T. R. for thirty years, he was 42 years of age, and having entered the service of the company at a very young age. He was married, and leaves a widow and several children. His eldest daughter, a young lady, was here Thursday morning.
