This is a fact, that a crazy coon bet 10 to 1 yesterday that the Toronto Basoball Club would not, be better in the International League at the end of the season than third. He was requested to "repeat a thousand times but declined. He will lose a hundred and that's enough he was wise enough to think or a moment's idlocy.

The stage hands at the Grand Opera House have elected the following officers: T Scott.

I. Capt. & Man.; E Ferris, catcher; W Miller, pitcher; G. Moody, s. a.; J Ross, 1 b.; A. Brown, 2 b.; A Wilson, 3 b.; M Stuart c. f. and F Ferris, I. L. The nine will be open for challenges from all local teams after May I.

Wm. Molean, of Detroit, challenges Harry Gilmore, of Toronto, to fight him to a finish. I condon rules, with gloves, in a twenty-four foct ring on the turi. Molean's backers will put up $250 on him. Should Gilmore accept McLean will meet him after the former's fight with Sam Bittle. Gilmore will accept and if McLean were as big as a house, providing only that his name is bona fide, Gilmore would fight him. McLean, or whatever he may assume to be, can rope no ropes on Gilmore, who is willing to fight any man in the world under 130 lbs.

The New England Lacrosse Association met Monday evening at the Quincy House, Boston, with Vice-President W. A. Davis in the chair. Fhirty-four members of the association were preseat, representing all the clubs. The Boston Lacrosse Club of Somerville and the new Somerville club were proposed and admitted to membership. The following officers were then elected: W. A. Davis, President of Somthern elected: W. A. Davis, President elected: W. A. Davis, Pr a association; F. C. Hood, Second Vice-lent, Harvard; J. C. A Mammoth Dog Kennel ennel on a large scale is to be started i y intended to beed all sorts of pure-strained annoy animals. A specialty will be made of asstiffs. Col. Fred. Grant, son of the late len. U. S. Grant, is probably the most fashonable breeder of mastiffs in this country. dis kennels are at Boston, Mass., and he has borty-seven stock dogs. A letter received from Jol. Grant by a gentleman in Nashville says: "My stock-dog Major is undeniably the largest and most distinguished private mastiff in our country, and is valued at $2500. Attached to a lixty-pound wagon he draws with ease and safety my four children, entering into the sport with apparent delight."

The Popular Tailor!
Spring is now at hand, and with it one necessity (that is for the male sex), viz., a Yonge street tailor, has got one of the finest assortments of spring suitings in Toronto. As a cutter he ranks A 1, for material he uses the best and for promptness of despatch is highly recommended.

From the Kingston News.
At the end of this month Kingston is to less one of its most energetic and best business man in the person of Mr. F. X. Cousineau, who has decided to reside permanently in Toronto. His lately acquired business in that city, the noted Bon Marche, has proved so successful and satisfactory to him that he finds it requires and deserves his whole so successful and satisfactory to him that be finds it requires and deserves his whole time and attention. His Kingston business will not be closed at present, but will be continued under efficient management.

Because I did not buy my harness from the Canadian Harness Co., 104 Front Street East, opposite Hay Market. Take my advice and don't you do the same. They have the finest and largest stock of hand-stitched harness in the Dominion. All made on the premises. They guarantee every set. I won't get left next time.

—Hello! Gus you look happy, what's up?
Well, Fred, I'll tell you: That dude that has so much cash called on Jennie the other night, and her mether got him to help her put up some pictures, and he drove the nails in and broke the plaster off their new walls, and she got mad with him and Jennie told me of it. I telephoned R. J. Licence & Co. cor. Bay and Adelaide, and they sent a man up and put up room mouldingat my expense (and it only cost six dollars), and now I'm solid with the old lady.
She thinks I've a great head.

Jack Frost Conquered. -Although during the cold season "Jack Frost" gets in his work lively, yet Haggard's Yellow Oil beats him every time, curing chilblains, frost bites and all their painful effects. It also cures group, sore throat, rheumatism and most painful affections.

A big boom is now on at the corner of Yonge and Alice, Messrs. McKendry & Cc. having purchased a tremendous drive in lace curtains, hey are selling a really good pair of curtains, for 50 cents and 75 cents a pair, and in the better class goods the prices are ridiculously low. All ladies about to de house-cleaning sheald visit the Waterloe House, 278 Yonge, each corner Alice.

was so good that we were led to expectsomething above average plano manipulation, and we were not disappointed. Miss Bloomfield was not only happy in being able to sustain her reputation, but doubly so in that she astonished many and delighted all by her masterly rendering of the Henselt Concerto. Her style is broad and full, with great wrist power, while her touch is refined and her execution orisp and clear. She seems to combine all the larger elements for a possibly great future, and Chicago may well be proud of so excellent an artiste. The other attractions will be Juliette Corden, the young artiste who created such a furore at the ninth concert and the Toronto Quartette Club, assisted by Miss McCutcheon and Sig. Napolitano. The plan opens this morning.

The Mentreal and Torento Amateurs.

The Toronto public have always been generous in the support they have accorded to our amateurs, and from the rapid sale of the tickets for the performance on Easter Monday it is evident that the public are equally generous when amateurs from another city co-operate with our own. The Montreal amateurs who on that occasion will play "The Dreadtul Doctor," a charming comediette by Sir Charles Young, are Mr. W. L. Young (son of the author), and Mr. Campbell Lane. They are well known is Montreal for their dramatic talent. The Toronto amateurs comprise Mr. Douglas Armour, Mr. Dunstan, Mr. Lewis Bird, Mr. W. J. Baines, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Townsend and Miss E, Shanly. Mr. W. J. Baines, who has had in hand many amateur successes, is the stage manager. Tickets are for sale at Nordineirs.

The Musical Festival.

There will be a mass rehearsal of the Festival oboruses this evening in Shaftesbury Hall at 7.30. The remainder of the chorus tickets will be distributed and a full attendance of all the divisions is particularly requested.

The Victoria Club's Concert.

Members and friends of the Chestaut Street
Methodist and the Queen Street Baptist Churches filled Temperance Hall last night to Churches filled Temperance Hall last night to listen to a concert gotten up for the benefit of the two churches. The concert was also given for the purpose of suitably inaugurating the Victoria Club, an organization for the cultivation of vocal and instrumental music and for the social enjoyment of its members. Mayor Howland occupied the chair and to judge from the acception of the proposal of a hearty vote of thanks for his services, made himself solid with the audience.

thanks for his services, made himself solid with the audience.

The program opened 'with a selection from "Martha" by an orchestra who had kindly and gratuitously offered their services. Of the twenty-two pieces that followed it may be said that they were uniformly of the highest order. The club's rendition of "Jingle Bells" was most pieasing. Miss E. Smith, singing prettily five pieces in sall, fairly ecitpsed herself in Ardeta's "Eostacy," sung in Italian.
Mr. W. A. Smith played a splendid cornet solo and Mr. R. Thomas read "Asincp at the Switch" graphically. Mr. W. Hill's song.
"Trusty as Steel," was one of the events of the evening. The quartet singing was also a noteworthy feature.

Calculating on the success of last night's performance, the club has a long and Prosperous life before it.
