"Danger Ahead ?"

There is danger shead for you if you neglect the warnings which nature is giving you of the approach of the fell-destroyer—consumption. Night-sweats, spitting of blood, loss of appetite—these symptoms have a terrible meaning. You can be cured if you do not wait until it is too late. Wife (to husband): John, mother is very sick this morning, and I wish you would stop at Dr. Pellet's office on your way down town and send him here at once, Husband: Why not employ young Dr. Smith? He is just beginning to practice and ought to be encouraged. I believe in giving young men a show. An excess of animal food and a partial closing of the pores of the skin, during the winter mouths, cause the system to become filled will impurities. These can be removed and the food purified and invigorated by taking Ayers Sarsaparilla. Price $1.

A Big Drunk came staggering down the street in a palpably tired and worn-out state. He was mumbling to himself as he jogged against the lamp-posts and upset the people he met. In this country we have sudden changes and must expect to have coughs and colds. We cannot avoid them, but we can effect a cure by using Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that has, never been known to fail in curing coughs, colds, brouchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs and chest.

Arrest of a New York Dry Goods Berchant and a Physician.

New York, March 17.—Coroner Lindsay of Brooklyn finished the inquest last night in the case of Fannie M. Briggs, the pretty saleswoman employed in George A. Hetterick's dry goods stors in Myrtle-avenue, who died of malpractice. After brief deliberation the jury returned a verdict of malpractice, holding Dr. Briggs responsible and Mr. Hetterick as a witness. Dr. Briggs, who was present, was arrested and taken to the Police Station. Shortly after 12 o'clock this morning a detective visited Mr. Hetterick's hone where he found him in bed. The detective was very much surprised to find that Mr. Hetterick inchange did not deceive him. He placed Mf. Hetterick under arrest and he, with Dr. Briggs, will be arraigned to-day.

The police say that from all appearance Hetterick was about to make a hasty departure from the city. He had made an assignment of his business, as it is suspected with that end in view. The sudden termination of the inquest, which was expected to last one day longer, it is thought, spoiled his plans. Dr. Briggs is not related to Miss Briggs.
