The Chicago Brotherhood players who have gone to New Orleans are: Darling, Farrell and Boyle, catchers; Baldwin, Dwyer and Bartson, pitchers; Comiskey, first base; Pfeffer, second base; Latham, third base; O'Neill, left field; Ryan, centre field, and Duffy, right field. "Old Hoss" Flint will join the club at New Orleans. Ed Williamson is boiling-out at Hot Springs, Ark., and may not play with the team before the St. Louis game, where Pitcher King will also do his first work in a Chicago uniform.

The Buffalo delegates to the meeting of the Players' League in Cleveland last week returned home perfectly satisfied with the schedule and predicting that the season would be a most prosperous one. Decided improvement will begin at once at Olympic Park, and everything will be in fine shap for the opening of the season. The whole outfield may be sodded. The grand stand will be strengthened and more chairs will be put are lightly and to the comfort of the baseball public. The presence of an International team here appears to give the Players in Buffalo little trouble.

Capt: John Barr, who sailed the Thistle in her races with the Volunteer for the American Cup, arrived in this country last week on the steamer Prussian from Glasgow. He is to take up a permanent residence in Marblehead. Capt. Barr said that he knew of no challenge on the other side, and thought there would be no international race this season.

F. M. Brinker of the Buffalo Bicycle Club and W. F. Gassler, jr., of the Niagara Falls Bicycle Club have signed articles and posted forfeits for a series of three Safety bicycle races, quarter mile, half mile and mile. The first race will be the quarter mile and will be run at Niagara Falls on June 7; the second, the mile contest, will take place in Buffalo June 14, and if a third race is necessary the winner of the second will have the privilege of selecting the place at which the deciding half mile race will be contested.
