"NEW HOWES" ROSEBERY ON HOME RULE

vestigating the merits of all the wheels in the market, selected

London, March 17.—Most of the morning dailies comment in the severest terms upon the facts laid bare by Dr. Jameson's report. They demand that the affair be sifted thoroughly and the guilty men be punished to the full extent of the law. If the report be found true, they say, the men responsible for the breach of trust must be held responsible also for the subsequent disaster to Capt. Wilson and his party and for Lobengula's death.

Home Rule for all immediate practical purposes was completely shelved. His own instincts are clearly imperial. His speech renders an early dissolution more probable than ever.

The Standard says: Lord Rosebery was scared by his own utterances and the clamor of the Irish. He strove, but failed to explain away his explicit statement in the House of Lords. It was a pitiful attempt to retract an was palpalby insincere.
