INTRUSION AND EXTRUSION:

THE ELDER'S WARNING.

(From the Edinburgh Evening Post.)

'Noo, John Makgill, my Elder, come listen to my word,
'Its time to leave the harrow, its time to draw the sword:

The sheep may wander on the hill, the stots rout in the byre,

But anither path is ours, John, thro' danger and thro' fire.

The cloud o' tribulation that we hae long forseen, Has gather'd ower the land, John, like mists that rise at e'en :

that rise at e'en:

The palings o' our vineyard are gey near broken doun,

An' the bits o' vines are trampled by greedy
laird and loon.

The auld Erastian lords have put their feet upon our necks, And our chalders they have dwindled to little mair than pecks: The weary interlocuters come pelting every day,

And the bills and the expenses are mair than we can pay.

But what is waur nor a', John, while thus distress'd we stand,

Black Prelacy is crawling, like pushion, thro' the land.

The scarlet woman will be here to sit within

For when you see a Bishop, John, the Paip's no far awa'.

They'll soon be here to tithe ye, they'll tithe both stot and stirk; O! waes me for the Covenant, and waes me for the Kirk!

But we'll meet them on the ground, John, whaur we met them ance afore,

And pay the weary Moderates a black and bitter score:

ae lang's we're a' united, it winna do to bow

To the canker'd Lords o' Session, and their wigs o' plaister'd tow.

We'll gather on the hills, John, we'll gather far and near,

And Candlish he will lead the van, and Cunningham the rear.

ningham the rear

We'll think o' Bothwell Brig, John, and the Raid o' Rullion Green, We'll show them that we lo'e the Kirk far better nor the Queen. Our Zion is in danger, sae tak' your auld claymore, And tak' ye down the rauchan that hangs ahint the door. And put your braid blue bonnet on, and we'll daunder up the glen, And meet the bauld Conventicle, as our fathers did, ye ken.'

Auld John Makgill he listened, and whiles he wat his thumb And whiles took up the cuttie pipe that lay beside the lum: And whiles he keekit in the pat that held the simmering kail, But ne'er a bit he lifted his rauchan from the nail. doot, noe doot! an awfu' case! the times are unco hard!

And sae your thinking, minister, to leave your

ain churchyard,
And the bonny manse and stipend, that was worth twa hundred pund, potato grund!

An awfu' dispensation! 1 canna say ye're

Ye'se hae my blessing, Minister! but I canna gae mysel'.

My auld claymor's just useless, 'tis rusted holes. fu' o'

Indeed, the bairns hae broke it wi' hacking at the coals.

The rheumatiz is in my back, I canna tell how sair. And I got my death with driving the beasts to Hallow Pair.

I'm no the body that I was, ye ken I'm get-ting auld,
And as for lying out o' doors, the nights are,
dismal cauld!

Ye'll need a gude thick great coat gin ye're

ganging up to sleep

In the bare and broken heather, 'mang the muircocks and the sheep.

Ye'll find it's warenerlying, gif ye lie doun

heads and thraws,

Wi' the ither noble gentlemen that winns thole the laws. I'm verra laith to lose ye, and sue is Jenny

HIS preparation has now stood the test of several years' trial, and is confidently recommended as a safe and effectual medicine for expelling worms from the system. The unexampled success that has attended its adminis-

here,
There's no a better liket man in any parish near;
But gin the case is pressing, I wadna dare to say Ye'd better tak' a thought on't, and bide anither day.
'Twill be an unco comfort when the nights are cauld and mirk,
To think that you are chosen to suffer for the Kirk.
For me it's clean impossible, ye ken 1'm auld and frail,
But surely, Sir, afore ye gang, ye'll stop and taste our kail.'

Now glad sho'd be our Minister that he call'd at John Makgill's,
For cosily he kept the manse, and never tuk the hills.

The proprietor has made it a point to ascertain the result of its use in such cases as came with in his knowledge and observation—and he invariably found it to produce the most salutary effects, not unfrequently after nearly all the ordinary preparations recommended for worms had been previously resorted to without any permanent advantage. This fact is attested by the certificates and statements of hundreds of respectable persons in different parts of the country, and should induce families always to keep a vial of the preparation, and may be administered with perfect safety to the most delicate infant.

The genuine Vermifuge is now put up in one ounce vials, with this impression upon the glass, FAHNESTOCK'S VERMITUGE, and the directions accompanying each vial have the signature of the progreties are trended with worms, certainly renders it worthy the attention of physicians.
