SOON TO APPEAR:

Among other important and entertaining matter, coming numbers will contain:

"The Future of Egypt," an important paper by Gen. Loring Pasha, who has just returned after holding for ten years high command in the army of the Khedive; of special interest in the present unsettled condition of affairs in Egypt and the Soudan: "Creation or Evolution," a series of papers by George Ticknor Curtis; a philosophical inquiry; both theories judicially considered. "A Critical Paper on Edwin Booth," by Henry C. Pedder; beautifully illustrated with engravings of the actor in his principal characters. "Riverside Park New York City"; a descriptive article richly illustrated. "Literature and Science," an important paper by Matthew Arnold. "Fingal's Cave," popular scientific article by Cope Whitehouse, whose researches at Lake Moeris, in Egypt, gave him such high reputation among European Savants. "Trajan," a brilliant and remarkable novel, the author of which, for reasons that will be apparent to the reader, desires to remain unknown. "Our Forest and Tree Lore," an interesting paper by Miss Laura C. Holloway. "The Yellowstone Park beautifully illustrated. "Dartmouth College the Alma Mater of Webster and Choate" illustrated with portraits and numerous views of the college and its neighborhood. "Tinkling Cymbals," Edgar Fawcett's charming serial of Society in Newport and New York; will run through several numbers.
