IMPROVED
BUTTER COLOR
A NEW DISCOVERY.

For several years we have supplied the Dairymen of America with an artificial color for butter, so meritorious that it is the highest and only prize at both International Expos. Fairs.

But by patient and scientific research we have improved in every respect, and now offer this new color as the best in the world.
It will not color the Butter-milk. It will Not Turn Rancid. It is the Strongest, Brightest and Cheapest Color Made.

And, while prepared in oil, is so compound that it is impossible for it to become rancid.
BEWARE of all imitations, and of all other oil colors, for they are liable to become rancid and spoil the butter.

If you cannot get the "Improved" write to know where and how to get it without extra expense.

Sparkles.

"A SCOLDING wife is not a joy for ever" —she is only a temperamental affair.
ON his annual round: "What was it Laurie etc?" "Why, 'twas 'baccalaureate." A MAN who played the violin wretchedly was said to be smart; in that he sawed several chords per day.
"PASS I of course I'll pass!" replied a twelve year-old girl (the other day). "Doesn't my brother keep company with the schoolm'am, and will she dare snub one of the family?"
We were dining together at a French restaurant, and spied to our intense disgust a fly in the soup. "Walter!" I indignantly cried. My friend interposed, "Whatever you do, don't mention the fly; they'll charge it extra in the bill." A GERMAN went to a friend and said, "Tomorrow I owe you $20,000. I am ruined.
I can not pay it, and I don't shleep a wink." The creditor said: "Vy didn't you wait to tell me to-morrow? Now neither can I shleep a wink."

A COLLEGE president says that every student should thoroughly understand three languages—English, German, and French; and an alarm-bell wants to know what will become of the thick-skinned—boating, boxing, and baseball—English is taken up.
"Time," says Charlie has married. Do you know his wife? Is she a woman of any intelligence? Is she well-informed? "Well-informed," Well, I should say so. She has belonged to the village sewing circle for ten years and never missed a meeting."

A WELL-DRESSED gentleman sauntered up to a street-car driver to ask him what time it was, when the driver, with an emphatic gesture, called out: "Keep away from that mate. We kicked at a dude yesterday. He isn't afraid of anybody."

"Yes," said Mrs. Towser, as she explained to the beauties of her flower garden, "I have given it great care, and if you come over in a week or two, I expect to be able to show you some beautiful scarlet pneumonia and China oysters."
"Priest: "Pat I understand you are going to be married again." Disconsolate widower: "Yes, your reverence." Priest: "But your wife, Pat, has only been dead two weeks." D. W.: "Yes, yer reverence; but sure ain't she as dead now as she iver will be?"

A FLORIDA hotel-keeper was charging a Western traveller three prices for bad accommodations. "What will you do when you have killed the goose that lays the golden egg?" said the grumbling traveller.
"Wait for another goose!" said the hard-hearted landlord.

A GAYSTON child, little Charlie, was having a wordy-war with the nurse. His father sang out: "Now, Charlie, are you going to be quiet, or shall I come with a switch?" "Never mind the switch, papa," responded the youngster, "I can set her flight without your help." AN Arkansas boy, writing from college in reply to his father's letter, said: "So you think that I am wasting my time in writing little stories for the local papers, and cite Johnston's saying, that the man who writes extra for money, is a fool. I shall act upon Dr. Johnson's suggestion, and write for money. Send me fifty dollars."

A GREAT INSTITUTION.

The surgeons of the International Throat and Lung Institute, operating from their dispensaries, Montreal, Toronto, Detroit, Mich., and Winnipeg, Mass., are treating more patients suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Pharyngitis, Asthma, Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, than any other institution in the world. We cure what others think incurable. We help every case and cure the majority we undertake to treat. Patients will strictly follow our directional treatment, we are curing thousands of cases of the above named diseases every year.

having your corn stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it.

Mr. H. F. McCarthy, Chemist, Ottawa, writes: "I have been dispensing and jobbing Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda for the past two years, and consider that there is no better preparation of the same kind in the market. It is very palatable, and for chronic coughs it has no equal."

Gifford, white pastor of M. E. Church, Both-

THE DANGER OF OVER-EXERCISE A stalwart man becomes weaker than a child and then recovers his former strength.

(Walter, N. Y. Observer)

In these days of rowing giants and athletic heroes has physical development it more observed than ever before since the time of the Alhambra games. A man who shows the elements of physical power is looked up to far more than in the days of our ancestors possibly because there are fewer specimens of well developed manhood than there are. An ecstasy of this paper met a magnificent specimen of physical power, a few days since in the person of Dr. A. W. Mc-Namee, of Waterloo. His muscles, which showed unusual development, were as hard as wood. At his request the writer sought to pinch him in the arm or leg, but found it wholly impossible. A realization of what is meant by an iron man was fully made marfent.

"Have you always been stalwart as this?" inquired the news gatherer.
"Not by any means," was the reply. "When a young man I was always strong and active and felt that I could accomplish anything. This feeling I took possession of me on one occasion that I attempted to lift a man which four men found it impossible to move. I succeeded in placing it on the waggon, but in two minutes from that time I was unconscious and remained in for hours, and when I recovered I vomited a large quantity of bile. From that day I began to grow weak and sickly. I believe that I had suffered some internal injury and experienced a general debility, which increased in the effects produced by malaria. My body was very weak. I had no appetite, and at times I could not eat. My lips were parched and cracked. I felt as though it were entirely open at the top, and it gained me on the side instead. In six weeks' time I had fallen away from six pounds to less than two. I was in a most wretched condition. I was completely discouraged."
"What did the doctors say about you?"
"Almost every one. I consulted no less than six different physicians. They all treated me and none did me any good. At that time I was suffering intensely. I could not sit upright, but was obliged to rest in a cramped, uneasy position. I was compulsory to urinate every five minutes, and I passed over three quarts every day. I was not living, I was existing."

One night (how well I remember it!) my wife had put the children all in bed, when the feeling came over me that I should live but a very short time. My wife and I talked matters all over, and I gave the most direct directions as to what she should do after I was gone. I was not in a slightly condition by any means, for the doctor, on leaving town the day following, bade me good-bye, saying he never expected to see me again, for I was suffering with slight disease of the kidneys in its last stages. Within the next few days more than twenty friends came to me good-bye. Among the number was Dr. John L.
Clark. He asked me what I had been using in the way of medicine. I told him. He then recommended a remedy of which I had heard much, but about which I was very sceptical. If I had been an element of power, it certainly was lacking in my case."

"And so you did not try it?"
"On the contrary, I did try it, and to my surprise it seemed to go to just the spot. Indeed, it was the most palatable thing I had taken into my mouth for months. I finished it."
"And didn't cure you?"
"Do you think it did?"
"Yes, indeed. What was it?"
"Wells' Safe Cure."
"A proprietary medicine?"
"Of course. What of that? I suppose I once had as great a prejudice against advertised medicine as any one could have. When I was studying medicine at Ann Arbor, Michigan, I used to vow with the rest of the class that we would fight all such remedies at all times. When a man comes down to the last hour, however, and tells his wife and friends goodbye, such bigoted prejudices as these all vanish, I can assure you, and any remedy that can cure a gladly welcomed."
"And how have you been since then?"
"As well as better, than before."
"Do you still exert your strength?" "Certainly. But I do not exert, as formerly, my strength increasing every day, and my health is number one. I know that my life was saved by Wells' Safe Cure, and I believe it is the best medicine that was ever compounded by any chemist or physician. I am willing the doctors should see it me for such a statement if they choose, but I have proven its truth, and am prepared to stand by it." The above experience should be of great value to all who are suffering. It shows the deceptive name of this terrible malady; that all symptoms are better known to it, and that there is but one way by which it can be absolutely avoided.

Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Dr. De-commend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Pimples on the Face, Biliousness and Constipation, such cases having come under my personal observa-

Mrs. BARKMAN, corner Pratt and Broadway has been a sufferer for twelve years through rheumatism, and has tried every remedy she could hear of, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Thomas' Elec-rheumatism cured. There are base imitations of case it gives the best satisfaction. We use it
