I regret to state that many members of the Club have allowed themselves to get into the habit of not paying their subscriptions until the receipt of a special appeal asking for funds. This costs the Club money, gives a great deal of trouble, and should not be necessary.

I, also, again draw the attention of the members to the advertisements on the cover of the NATURALIST, many of which appear in this number of Vol. XIX for the first time. It is hoped that members of the Club will bear these in mind, and make a point, as far as they conveniently can, of dealing with those who have been good enough to help the Club by advertising in our magazine.

ARTHUR GIBSON,

Treasurer.

Statement examined and found correct.
