

something else than consideration for the farmer prompts it. But then Mr. Mitchell may have no idea of starting on another philanthropic mission, and the telegrams referred to may be only some irresponsible trash, like what some of our own meddlesome and garbling daily newspaper reporters have dished up about this gentleman whom they taffy by calling him the "great wheat buyer."

STEVENS & ROSS have opened up a livery and feed stable at Virden and contemplate establishing a system of monthly auction sales of horses, cattle, sheep and live stock generally.
