A Chance to Make Money.

I have berries, grapes and peaches a year old, fresh as when picked. I use the California Cold process, do not heat or seal the fruit, just put it up cold, keeps perfectly fresh, and costs almost nothing; can put up a bushel in ten minutes. Last week I sold directions to over 120 families; anyone will pay a dollar for directions when they see the beautiful samples of fruit. As there are many people poor like myself, I consider it my duty to give my experience to such, and feel confident anyone can make one or two hundred dollars round home in a few days. I will mail sample of fruit and complete directions to any of your readers for eighteen two-cent stamps, which is only the actual cost of the samples, postage, etc., to me.

CONTENTS:—On the Ocean and on Shore—A Run into Yorkshire and a Tramp over a Moor—Bristol and Its Neighborhood—Cheddar—Tintern and Chepstow—Bath by a Roundabout Way—London—A Day at Windsor—A Day at Hampton Court—Warwick—Stratford-on-Avon—Chester—From London to Glasgow—Glasgow—Through the Trossachs—Callander and Stirling—Edinburgh—Abbotsford, Melrose and Dryburgh—A Visit to Ayr—A Run Through Ireland—Last Trip to Scotland.

To those who have visited the British Isles, to those who intend to visit them, and to those who cannot give themselves that pleasure, we recommend this wholly fascinating book. Mr. Haight describes the scenes through which he passed with sympathetic and graphic pen. We share his enthusiasm, and the fine engravings make doubly real to us the numerous historic points about which he lingers, and of which he gives us in his racy, pleasing style so much interesting information.
