SHAFTESBURY HALL

WEEKLY BULLETIN.

PUBLISHED BY THE
TORONTO YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

VOL. III.

TORONTO, APRIL 22, 1882.

No. 1.

THE BULLETIN.

SCARCELY a week has passed without being requested to resume publication of the Bulletin. Added to the requests has been the continued appeal of our Boarding House Committee, members of which stated that it proved invaluable in this work, in fact that without it they found it difficult to gain access to the Houses. While desiring to meet their demands we did not feel warranted in resuming it unless the way was opened for its publication without advertisements, and without contracting debts. We have thus far made no appeal for help, but the matter appears to have been pressed upon the hearts of some Brethren, and a few days ago our worthy ex-treasurer authorized us to publish for one month at his expense. This we now undertake, and shall continue the publication just so long as the Lord sends the wherewithal to meet the Printer's claim. We shall contract no debt, and non-receipt of funds will be to us an evidence that the Bulletin should again rest. We shall take the stand of the aged saint as set forth in the following lines:

"Thou hast a scanty breakfast. "Nay it is enough," she quickly cried
"The promise fails not from day to day I know my Father will still provide"
"And if so be he should want me home It is a token that's easily read:
Whenever he means to bid me come,
And not before, he will stop the bread."
