THE HOME IDEA

of education is one of the most practical developments of modern life. ¶ One learns easily, willingly. It's merely making use of time that would otherwise be wasted. ¶ There's no forcing, no cramming. Studying is done when convenient—it can be dropped and taken up at will. It does not interrupt the regular occupation. It does away with whole terms of compulsory work and expense. ¶ And the training is more thorough—for every teaching word is written to be referred to at any time. Every student is a class—and the standard aimed at is perfection.
