1st aged Boar, J. Laporte, Pointe aux Trembles,	2 0 0	1st Sow, with litter of Pigs, Hugh Campbell, Petite Cote,	2 0 0	Sir,—In concluding our tour of inspection as judges on crops for the society for the current year, and in compliance with your desire we send you a brief account of our observations.
2nd do James Logan, Petite Cote,	1 10 0	2nd do Thos. Mountain, Montreal City,	1 10 0	To begin, we regret to inform you that through the whole course of our inspection we found the crops very light, much below an average crop; the cause, a hot, dry season. We visited several fine fields of bald wheat, and particularly admired the wheat fields of James Somerville, of Lachine; Robert Brodie, of Coteau Ste. Pierre, Walter Brunny, of Coteau St. Pierre, and Thomas Smith of Pointe Claire. The Black Sea wheat is in general very light, and struck with the rust, and in some districts
