The Catholics of Vandergrift, Pa., headed by their pastor, recently called upon Rev. H. R. Johnston, Presbyterian minister, and formally protested against his false and bigoted attacks upon the Catholic Church.

In Tzintzuntan, an Indian village in Mexico, is a masterpiece of Titian, sixteen by seven feet, presented by Charles V. to Bishop Don Vasco de Quirogo. It represents the entombment of Christ.

His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface returned from Kamsack last Monday.

On Tuesday, July 3, New Orleans gave a great reception to its first native born Archbishop, the most Rev. James H. Blenk, who was born in the Crescent City in 1856. In his youth he joined the Society of Mary, in which he studied and taught in France and Ireland. Returning to Louisiana soon after his ordination, he was professor in Jefferson College for five years, then president of that institution, then pastor of St. Mary's Church, Algiers, La. On July 2, 1899, he was consecrated Bishop of Porto Rico, where for the last seven years he has been organizing the Catholic forces in that island with marked success.

Rev. Joseph Blain, S. J., returned Wednesday from St. Jean, where he spent the last nine days, having remained over for the Forty Hours' devotion which ended on Tuesday.

Clerical News

Rev. Dr. Beliveau returned from St. Anne de Beaupre last Sunday and left the next day for Edmonton as companion to Right Rev. Monsignor Dugas, who is also visiting the capital of Alberta. His Grace the Archbishop being absent at St. Charles, whither he went last Monday, and the Vicar General being away in the Northwest Rev. Father Dandurand, O.M.I., was Administrator of the diocese for a few days this week and fulfilled this responsible duty with all the exactness of the youngest bishop in Christendom, although he is already far advanced in his eighty-seventh year.

Rev. John McDonald, S. J., officiated at the Stony Mountain Penitentiary last Sunday and will do so next Sunday.

Rev. Canon Edward St. John, of Bishop's House, Southwark, London, passed through here last week on his way west.

ALMOST ADOPTED.

A Boston paper tells this pleasing "adoption story."

A good-sized boy was hurrying along the street, dragging his two-year-old brother after him, in spite of the loud protests of the child, when a benevolent-looking old gentleman stopped him. "My son," said the old gentleman, regarding him with kindly eyes, "how old are you?" "Twelve," answered the boy.

PIANOS

Those who buy a piano ought to pay as much attention to the record and reputation of a piano as the piano itself. They ought to pay more attention to its musical qualities than to the case.

The Mason & Risch Piano

Is a musical instrument before it is an article of furniture, yet it is an instrument that would beautify any room. No piano has a better record.

"You're a stout lad for that age, I should have taken you to be fourteen. Never been sick much, have you?"

"No, sir."

"I thought not. You enjoy your vic-tuals, sleep like a top and can play ball all day without getting tired, can't you?"

"Yes, sir."

"I was sure of it. I wish I had a boy like you."

"What for?"

"So that I could turn him over my knee and spank him. Pick up that baby and carry him you young savage, or I shall be tempted to consider you my boy for all practical purposes, right now."
