

return, without further formal proceedings. When such consent has been given, the requesting State shall, without delay, take all steps as are necessary to receive the person sought.

2. The judicial authority shall advise the person of the rights and protections conferred under this Treaty. The consent to return shall constitute a waiver of those rights and protections, including the protections conferred under Articles 14 and 15.

Article 17 - Transit

1. When a third State has granted the extradition of a person to one of the Contracting States, that Contracting State shall seek the transit permission for that person from the other Contracting State in the case of a scheduled landing on the latter State's territory of an aircraft with that person on board.

2. The request for transit permission shall include such information as specified in subparagraphs a and c of paragraph 2 of Article 9.

3. The Contracting State requested for transit may refuse to give its permission on any grounds provided by its law.

Article 18 - Languages

Requests under this Treaty may be made in either the French or English language, except that requests to the Kingdom of the Netherlands outside Europe, if in French, shall be accompanied by an English translation. All other documents shall be translated into an official language of the requested State.

Article 19 - Expenses

1. Expenses related to the translation of documents and the transfer of the person extradited from the territory of the requested State to that of the requesting State shall be borne by the requesting State.

2. All other expenses incurred by the requested State by reason of extradition shall be borne by that State.

3. Expenses related to transit incurred by the transit State shall, at its request, be reimbursed by the Contracting State of destination.

Article 20 - Conduct of Proceedings

1. In the case of a request for extradition presented by the Kingdom of the Netherlands, the Attorney General of Canada shall conduct the extradition proceedings.
