Article 6

Refusal or Postponement of Assistance

1. Assistance may be refused when in the opinion of the requested State:
 - a. its authorities would be precluded by domestic law from carrying out the assistance requested, had the acts or omissions which are referred to in the request occurred in its own jurisdiction; or
 - b. the execution of the request would impair its sovereignty, security or similar essential public interests, prejudice the safety of any person or impose an excessive burden on its resources.
2. Assistance may also be refused for any reason provided by the law of the requested State.
