

5. At the time a Party submits its notification of technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures to the WTO Central Registry of Notifications in accordance with the TBT Agreement, it shall include an electronic link to, or a copy of, the full text of the document.
6. Each Party shall, at the request of the other Party, provide its responses or a summary of its responses, to significant comments it receives.
7. Each Party, at the request of the other Party, shall provide information regarding the objectives of, and rationale for, a technical regulation or conformity assessment procedure that the Party has adopted or is proposing to adopt.
8. If a Party does not accept a technical regulation of the other Party as equivalent to its own, it shall explain its decision at the request of the other Party. The Parties recognize that it may be necessary to develop common views, methods, and procedures to facilitate the use of equivalency.
9. The Parties shall ensure that all adopted technical regulations and conformity assessment procedures are published on official websites that are publicly available without charge.
10. If a Party, at a port of entry, detains a good imported from the territory of the other Party on the basis that the good may not comply with a technical regulation, it shall immediately notify the importer of the reasons for the detention of the good.
11. Any information that is provided at the request of a Party under this Chapter shall be provided in print or electronically within a reasonable period of time. The Party receiving the request shall endeavour to respond to the request within 60 days.
