

In 2016-2017, 76% of Global Affairs Canada's bilateral international development assistance investments either targeted or integrated gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls, and over the next five years, it will increase to at least 95%

Canada welcomes one out of every 10 REFUGEES resettled globally. In 2016-2017, Canada resettled 32,232 refugees³

In September 2016, Canada hosted the FIFTH REPLENISHMENT CONFERENCE of the  GLOBAL FUND TO FIGHT AIDS, TUBERCULOSIS AND MALARIA, which generated over US$12.9 billion in pledges. Canada made a total contribution of $804 million for 2017-2019

With the support of Canada and other donors:

the GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP FOR EDUCATION helped 11.3 million children, including 6.3 million girls, to go to school the UNITED NATIONS DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME'S FUNDING FACILITY FOR IMMEDIATE STABILIZATION helped 1.3 million people in Iraq return to areas liberated from Daesh

the GLOBAL POLIO ERADICATION INITIATIVE has immunized 2.5 billion children since 2000

UNICEF has reached 3.7 million community leaders to help prevent CHILD, EARLY AND FORCED MARRIAGE in Asia and Africa since 2014

2. Bilateral assistance consists of all assistance, including most humanitarian assistance and country and regional programming that is not institutional support to multilateral organizations. Multilateral assistance is institutional support to multilateral organizations, also known as core funding to multilateral institutions.

3. In 2016-2017, Canada resettled 13,070 government-assisted refugees, 16,600 privately sponsored refugees and 2,562 Blended Visa Office-Referred refugees from refugee populations all over the world.