SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS
TO ADDRESS THE CHICAGO COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, The Right Honourable Joe Clark, will address a prestigious committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations (CCFR) at lunch on Wednesday, April 13.

The Chicago Committee, sponsored by the CCFR, is a group of senior business and professional leaders. The group meets regularly to hear leading personalities address vital issues affecting the international relations and foreign policies of the United States.

Mr. Clark's speech will focus on the proposed Canada-USA free trade agreement, Canada's acid rain concerns and multilateral trade issues.
