

secondary schools as well as at post secondary educational institutions?

Hon. Allan J. MacEachen (Minister of Manpower and Immigration): Since a person's military or draft status in his own country has no bearing on his admissibility to Canada, no information on this subject is requested or recorded on immigration documentation. The Department therefore is unable to provide any statistics in this respect.

AIRCRAFT CF5—AIRWORTHINESS OF PARTS

Question No. 1,906—Mr. Gilbert:

1. Is Canadair Limited of Montreal a subsidiary of General Dynamics Corporation?

2. Does Canadair Limited receive its component parts and spares from General Dynamics Corporation?

3. Do the component parts and spares supplied by General Dynamics Corporation to Canadair go into CF-5 aircraft for use in Canada and elsewhere?

4. What measures does the Department of National Defence or any other government bodies take with regard to the quality of the component parts and spares and the general airworthiness of the CF-5 aircraft?

Mr. D. W. Groos (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of National Defence): 1. Yes.

2. In general, no, although there may be a limited number of cases in which this is so.

3. No.

4. In the case of components for the CF-5 manufactured in Canada, Quality Assurance is exercised by a Canadian Forces Technical Services Detachment, resident at the Plant. In the case of components manufactured outside of Canada, Quality Assurance rests with the Government concerned which is provided under STANAG 4107 (Mutual Acceptance of Government Quality Assurance).

SUBSIDY PAID TO TRANSPORTATION INDUSTRY 1960-69

Question No. 1,415—Mr. Robinson:

What was the total subsidy paid to the transportation industry during each year 1960 to 1969 inclusive?

Return tabled.

Mr. Hales: Mr. Speaker, on a question of privilege, I have a question, No. 1,480, which has been on the Order Paper for three months. I would ask the Minister of Transport to expedite the answer.

Mr. Forest: Mr. Speaker, I will look into the matter.

Mr. Southam: Mr. Speaker, I have had question No. 1,120 on the Order Paper since February 6, and it could quite easily have been answered long before now. I should like somebody on the other side to tell me what is the target date for answering this question.

Mr. Forest: Mr. Speaker, I will look into the matter.

Mr. Speaker: Shall the remaining questions stand?

Some hon. Members: Stand.
