

irreparable harm to our country. I have been told by those whose opinions I revere that one year after the new Constitution is proclaimed the scars will have healed and pride will take their place. With all my heart I want to believe that—but I don't, I just don't. The wounds have run too deep.

I am a westerner, but not one who just wants to be an alarmist. I am asking my friends to listen. I am asking them to make the changes which can make this package a Canadian package made in Canada, and which will unite our country and not divide it.

The Constitution

Some hon. Members: Hear, hear!

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Corbin): It being six o'clock, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

At six o'clock the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.
