*And now Mackenzie bringeth in
His Cabinet so pure,
The "smell to heaven," while Blake et al.
The odor must endure!*

FACTS.

(9th) 1872—Mackenzie and Blake offer $5000 reward for capture of Riel (Ontario Gazette,) but when they got in power in Ottawa, allowed him to come and sign his name as a member of the House, (Mar. '74,) and instead of searching for Riel, searched for an excuse to procure an amnesty, which they afterwards did! (Votes and Proceedings 1875, p. 62.)

1875—Mackenzie refused to have a survey of route before letting contract for Georgian Bay Branch! (Journals p. 220.) Contract had afterwards to be abandoned because of difficulties discovered!

(29th) 1875—Mackenzie refused to submit contracts for Esquimaux and Nanaimo Railway to House for approval. Blake could not stand such a departure from former professions and voted against him! (Journals p. 299.)
