

TELEGRAMS were received from Lieut.-Colonels Lamb and Lordly.

The Treasurer (Major Browne), presented the financial statement, showing a credit balance of $411.05, including $300.00 from Lieut. Johnston.

It being pointed out that many officers had not paid their dues, a discussion on the subject was invited.

Sir William Otter remarked upon "subscriptions to Associations and Messes, generally."

Major Mitchell was in favour of keeping the "Johnston Fund" in a separate account, and insisting that every member of the Corps be compelled to join the Association.

The Officer Administering enlightened the members as to how funds were used in other units and organizations.

Captains Biggs and Sifton suggested to increase the dinner fee, this year, to $5.00, and a difference of opinion rising thereon, regarding fees for guests, it was moved by Captain Biggs, seconded by Captain Weekes, that the dinner fee for members and their guests be $5.00.

It was moved by Major Browne, seconded by Major Mitchell, that the financial report be received and accepted.—Carried.

Moved by Captain Weekes, seconded by Captain Sifton, that this Association Meeting do now adjourn during pleasure, and that a meeting of Guides' Officers be now held to discuss regimental matters.—Carried.

The Officer Administering the Corps took the chair.

It was moved by Major Mitchell, seconded by Major De Kam, that in accordance with the proceedings of the last Annual Meeting (February 28th, 1913), with reference to the desirability of organizing a Corps of Guides' Mess, we now proceed to do this, and that the Officer Administering the Corps be requested to arrange the necessary details; and further, that when the Mess is formed, each officer of the Corps be sent a copy of the selected papers of 1914, read before the Corps of Guides' Association, and that a subscription of $3.00 per year be levied on each officer of the Corps, to constitute a Mess Fund for the purpose of carrying on the publication of papers and other business.—Carried.
