

ings of March, June, September and December ; he shall also give up all money, papers, &c., in his hands when requested by the Society, and also give a receipt to the Financial Secretary at each meeting of the Society for all money by him received.

Sec. 7. The duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be to see that none are present but members, or persons intending to become members, on any evening of meetings, except by leave of the President, or in his absence the next senior officer, and carry out the instructions of the President, or in his absence the next senior officer, in preserving order.

Sec. 8. The Ward Committees shall, upon being notified, visit forthwith any sick member residing in their district, and if, in their judgment, he be entitled to relief, give an order on the Treasurer for the same, and report the case at the next regular meeting, after which the sanction of the Society shall be required for its continuance. The sick shall be visited by their respective Committees at least once a week.
