

GLOSSARY

- Chanter*, the drone of a bagpipe.
Chap, a blow; also a young fellow.
Chat, talk.
Chuckies, chickens.
Clavering, talking idly.
Cleck, to hatch, to breed.
Cled, clad.
Cleugh, a cliff.
Cleeding, clothing.
Clishmaclavers, idle talk.
Clocksie, vivacious.
Clout, to strike with the hand; also to mend a hole
in clothes or shoes.
Clud, cloud.
Clutch, seizc.
Coble, a fishing-boat.
Cock-up, a hat or cap turned up before.
Coft, purchased.
Cogie, a hollow wooden vessel.
Coof, a fool.
Coost, cast.
Corrie, a hollow in a hill.
Cosie, snug, comfortable.
Couthilie, kindly.
Couthy, frank.
Cower, to crouch, to stoop.
Cowt, a strong stick.
Crack, to converse.
Cranreuch, the hoarfrost.
Creel, a basket.
Croft, a tenement of land.
Croodle, to sing with a low voice.
Croon, to make a plaintive sound.
Crouse, brisk.
Crowdy, meal and cold water, stirred together.