

Simpson's is Conceded to Be the Best Store for Men

A New Question for Men

When two or three men get together and talk about things in general, you often hear the question asked: "Where do you get your clothes?"—not "Who's your tailor?" observe, for the majority of men have found out that such clothes as the Simpson Store sells nowadays, ready-to-wear, will pass with honor among any collection of "made-to-order" clothes in town. Come and let us show you what we mean in these suits for to-morrow.

One of the new shades of Fancy Brown English Tweed, in very neat pattern, made in single-breasted three-button style, and well made. For a medium priced suit there is nothing on the market that compares with it. Thursday price at 12.00

Clothes for Boys

We recognize that boys will be men and devote time and care to our selection of clothes for the younger generation, knowing full well that these young customers will soon be old ones.

These two examples will give abundant proof to any parent that our boys' clothes are the right kind to look and wear well.

A Good Suit for the Boys' Ulster Overcoats

A genuine Scotch Tweed, in a neat herringbone pattern, with a double brown stripe. The shade is one of the new French tans. For style and general get-up, this suit ranks in the smart set for boys. The coat is cut in full double-breasted style, with long lapel. The pants are bloomer style. The suit is made expressly for the fat boy, with first-class linings and tailoring. Sizes 12 to 18 years. Thursday, 8.00

Have the boy prepared for the colder weather by taking advantage of our special offers. For Thursday we have a neat double-breasted ulster with convertible collar; made from an English tweed. The linings are mohair, in a diagonal pattern. This coat is well tailored, and is made to stand the wear and tear. Sizes 25 to 28, Thursday, $5.50; sizes 29 to 31, Thursday 6.00

Genuine Caldercruix Oatmeals For Wall Decorations

The Germans first made this style of paper, calling it "Oltzmele," meaning "sawdust," because of its appearance. The English have improved on it, and call it "oatmeal." It makes a beautiful wall decoration, in plain, stripe or over-print of pattern. It is best to be placed on a lined wall; it comes in tobacco, old English, but, golden, chamomile, ussian, lawn, brown, silver and verdure greys, sage, moss and Persian red, metallic and self-toned designs and panel decorations are used to decorate dining-rooms, halls, living-rooms and parlors.

Plain Oatmeals, any color, 21 in. wide. Per roll 35

30 in. wide 45

Stripe and Pattern Oatmeals, in different shades and designs. Per roll, 35, 50, 75 1.00
