CANADIANS NOW OUT IN THE UNSCARRED COUNTRY OF FRANCE

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES, the line of Oisy-le-Verger and Marquion. Sept. 5.—By J. F. B. Livesey, Canadian Press Correspondent.—Some brilliant battle tactics were pulled off during the recent engagements by individual brigades and battalions. Since August 8 the Canadian corps have been completely out of action for the time being. It met as many as fifteen divisions in the fighting of the past week. Its success is accounted for, not alone by the valor and tenacity of the individual soldier, but by a high standard of leadership throughout all ranks. Yesterday the Canadian troops occupied the line of the Canal-du-Nord and pushed strong patrols east through the line of Oisy-le-Verger and Marquion. Into Unscarred Country. The Canadian corps has now penetrated through the battle-stricken belt, and is again in country that shows little of the devastation of the war. The Hun left it too quickly to destroy it, but he is shelling it with heavy guns. The villages, which until now have escaped, will soon be reduced to heaps of tumbled bricks and mortar. Such a village is Douai. On Sunday night the population of this village was evacuated by the enemy, but 48 persons, mostly old men and women, remained hiding in the cellars, and gave an enthusiastic welcome to the troops who released them after four years of slavery. They had been set the task of the slave, the women even toiling in the trenches. Two young men of 22 escaped through the bombardment to our lines. They are middle-class and educated. Germans Are Panicky. "In our house," they said, "were billeted German officers all July. They were very cocky through the reverse on the Somme. What did it matter? Then came the Canadian attack on this line and their tone changed. On Sunday night they rushed, threw together a few of their effects, leaving the rest, and started off in a great haste to Marquette, whence they said their divisional headquarters had been moved to Cambrai, which was now denuded of troops. They expected to make a stand before Douai. "A non-commissioned officer, not a bad fellow, who had shown us some kindness in our misery, shook his fist in our direction. 'We are beaten,' he cried, 'and the army knows it. Our men are demoralized. They surrender in flocks. If those miserable bastards do not make peace soon, a great catastrophe will overwhelm the fatherland.'"

"We Will Continue To Pursue Enemy Implacably"—Foch PARIS, Sept. 5.—(Havas).—In a telegram replying to the congratulations of the Paris Municipal Council, Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the Entente Allied forces, thanked the council in his own name and on behalf of the French and Allied armies, and added: "The German rush which menaced Paris and Amiens has been broken. We will continue to pursue the enemy implacably."

FRENCH TROOPS DRIVE HUNS FROM THIRTY VILLAGES ON THE BANKS OF THE AILETTE

Poilus Cross the Somme Canal and Are Close to Ham—The British Make Further Progress Along Their Front North and South of Peronne.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The French troops made important advances today both along the Canal-du-Nord and north of the Vesle, according to the war office announcement tonight. During the course of the day thirty villages were retaken along the Ailette River.

The British have made further progress along their front north and south of Peronne, according to Field Marshal Haig's report tonight. British patrols have been able to cross to the east bank of the Canal-du-Nord south of Marquion.

Great Sweep in Flanders. Marked progress was made by the British last night and today along the Flanders front. Floegstert village has been captured, as has Hill 63, southwest of Messines. The British early today held the general line of Voormezele, Wulverghem, Floegstert, Nieppe, Laventie and Givenchy, and later pushed forward south and southeast of Nieppe and Wulverghem. From Neuve Chapelle southward to Givenchy, the British have reached the line they held up to the German attack on April 9 last, while to the eastward Givenchy and sections of the old German positions have been taken. More than 16,000 prisoners and more than 100 guns have been taken by the British in the past four days. The German retreat began before the French northeast of Noyon continued during the night. The French troops kept in touch with the enemy rear guards and pushed after the retreating force east of the Canal-du-Nord. Allies Reach the Aisne. Franco-American forces, pursuing the Germans north of the Vesle, had reached the line of the Aisne. Advancing north of the Vesle, French and American troops reached the crest of the ridge dominating the River Aisne. In the Vesle region, on the Somme front, the French crossed the Somme Canal near Voyennes and Offoy. Just to the south they had reached the region beyond Honboux, Esmeroy-Hallon and Play-le-Meldeux. Between the Ailette and the Aisne the towns of Clamecy, Braye and Missy-sur-Aisne had been captured this morning. The operation on the Vesle had been extended to the east and a crossing had been effected between Ventoux and Jochery.

Enemy Is In Almost Headlong Flight In Lower Battle Zone

PARIS, Sept. 5.—The French war office statement tonight reads: "Our troops continued their pursuit of the retreating enemy today along the Canal-du-Nord and the Vesle, and made an important advance despite resistance at certain points. "On the north bank of the Somme canal we hold Falvy and Offoy. To the south we have brought our lines nearer to the road to Ham along which our front extends from Fleussin-Patte d'Oie to Belancourt. "Advance Is Deep. "Southeast of our front passes through the outskirts of Guivry and Galliole-Croquigny, north of Marcellin and the southern outskirts of Abbecourt. At certain points our advance covered a distance of six kilometres. "Along the whole Ailette front the enemy exhausted by hard fighting since the 20th, began about 3 o'clock this afternoon to give way before our troops. Pursuing the German rear-guard our troops made rapid progress. North of the Ailette, Pierrenande and Luttreville are in our possession as well as the greater part of the lower forest of Couture. We occupied Pollebray, Coucy-le-Chateau and Coucy-le-Ville. We have advanced to within about a kilometre south of Frennes. "On the right our front passes east of Landricourt. "South of the Ailette we hold the line of Neuville-sur-Margival, Vregny, and the western slopes of Fort Conde. More than 30 villages were retaken in the course of the day on this part of the front.

NO BOILING — LESS RUBBING

For the Small Washing Or the Big One—

you need Taylor's BORAX SOAP, because it contains just the right amount of borax to soften the water and loosen the dirt. Hard water is injurious to the clothes and wastes the soap. Taylor's BORAX SOAP is economical in use. It is hard, washes away slowly, lathers quickly, cleanses thoroughly, and CANNOT injure the finest of laces. Woollens washed with this soap, according to directions, will retain all their fluffy "newness" and will not shrink. Just try it once. Sold everywhere.
