THREE FAMOUS RUSSIANS OF ONE MIND ON ONE QUESTION

An announcement in the daily press of the marriage of one of the world-famous Cherniavsky brothers to a young lady of British Columbia brings to memory the visit of these talented Russian musicians to Canada a few years ago. Whenever they appeared, east or west, a great reception was accorded them-Mischel with his 'cello, Leo with his violin, and Jan, the pianist. They proved themselves a remarkable trio. At all their recitals they which, by the way, they insist on using, whether in Canada, or Australia, or South Africa.

Mischel has said of this piano:
"The rich quality of the tone made the rendering of my cello numbers a pleasure such as I have never derived from the accom-paniment of any other piano." Leo: "The pure and even quality of the tone materially assisted to the success of my violin numbers. It surpasses any piano have ever used." Jan: "I attribute a great deal of my success to the facility with which the emotions are expressed by the perfect response and brilliant tone of your piano.

William Ostrander, a man between the age of 70 and 80 years, committed suicide last night at a late hour by hanging himself in a barn at the rear of his sister's home in Aylmer, Mrs. H. C. Balcolm. Mr. Ostrander tied a rope to a ladder and hoisted himself up in that way. An inquest will not be held, the coroner having decided that it was a case of suicide.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The street work being carried out by the board of works is going ahead at a rapid rate, and providing saitable weather conditions continue for the next few weeks, St. Thomas will be greatly improved. Dr. J. D. Curtis, in charge of the work, spends several hours each day as chairman of the board of works looking over the street improving. Talbot street will be completed this fall from Pleasant at the extreme west end, as far as Mary street at the postofice. The eastern end is already nearing completion. The remaining section will be constructed next year at the expiration of the debentures. STREET IMPROVEMENTS.
