EARL GREY'S TRIP

Elaborate Preparations For Tra-verse of "Long Lone Trail."

SELKIRK, July 25 .- Major J. D. Moodle arrived here this morning with Sergt. Thomas Nicholas and three troopers of the mounted police, the latter party continuing to Norway House via S.S. Wolverine to make thence by boat to Churchill. Major Moodie and the police detachment will return from Churchill, leaving the governor-general and party to make their round trip to Montreal by sea. A camp of ten tents will be pitched at Norway House, and the cavilade from there to the bay will be the most elaborate that has traversed the "long lone trail" since the days of Sir Alex. Simpson. A civic reception to Earl Grey will be tendered by the Town of Selkirk prior to his departure Aug. 4. At Norway House the governor-general will be personally entertained by the general Hudson Bay Company.
