HERE'S A WARNING FOR THE WHEELMEN

Fine for Riding on the Sidewalks Will Soon Be Raised $1.

Police court was held at 9 o'clock this morning, as the magistrate had to be at the registration office at 10 o'clock.

Police Court Clerk Moulde had a pile of sixteen $1 bills when his worship got through fining citizens who had ridden bicycles on the sidewalk.

Wheemen of all kinds young, old, fat, thin, tall and short, handed out their bills, and then as quickly as possible made a bee-line for the door.

Going to Raise Fine. "We are going to raise the fine to $2 soon," his worship told The Advertiser after court. "Too many people are riding wheels on the sidewalk these days, and the pedestrians, especially older people, are in great danger. The youngsters go along at a rapid rate and are upon some of the older people before they hear them."

George Abel, charged with being drunk and assaulting George Ruck, was remanded for a week.

W. J. Sully, who was charged by his spectator Weir with not sending his daughter, who was alleged to be under 14 years of age, to school, produced evidence from the registrar-general that the child is over 14 years, and the case was withdrawn.

General Lake Inspected the Seventh

The Men Made a Splendid Showing

Regiment Found It Impossible To Troop the Colors in Victoria Park.

The annual inspection of the Seventh Regiment took place in Victoria Park last night in the presence of a very large crowd of citizens.

General Lake, who inspected the men, was much pleased with the maneuvers, which were performed, and remarked that it was a pity the regiment had no larger and better-lighted grounds in which to drill.

The battalion movements were performed splendidly, considering the small space in which the men were crowded, and the poor light in which they had to work.

Couldn't Troop Colors. Military movements require proper space in which to be executed in order that they may be seen to the best advantage, and it was found impossible to troop the colors in such a small space.

This maneuver, which is one of the most stirring and attractive features of military drill, and one in which the Seventh excels, will be performed on Friday evening in Tecumseh Park.

B Company, in command of Captain Beecher, has been selected to troop the colors at Galt on May 24.

Large Turnout. Last night's turnout was one of the largest in the history of the regiment, nearly 450 men, including the bearer companies, being out.

Col. Peters, D. O. C., and Major Howard expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the work done by the regiment.

General Lake leaves for Peterboro this afternoon.

Ward Grabbing for Band Concerts

Where the band concerts will be held was the cause of a little discussion last night at the council meeting.

Ald. Rose was very anxious to have the matter settled, and immediately put in a plea for East London. He would not be satisfied with less than five concerts for that section of the city, and moved that such be the division.

Ward patriotism then came to the fore, and Ald. Rose made a strong plea for West London. The locality beyond the breakwater was a most important section of the city, and should be considered. This thing should be done right.

Ald. Saunders was much in favor of the distribution of the band concerts. London now had many parks, Wyatt Park, the sunken gardens and many more.

In fact he did not know how many parks there really were in the city. There should be a concert in each of these parks, but as he did not know where they were, he would suggest that the park commissioner furnish a list of parks, and then band concerts could be held in them.

Ald. Beattie declared that there was only one place for band concerts and that was in Victoria Park. If he had his way all the band concerts would be held there. However, if there were going to be concerts in every section, he would put in a claim for five band concerts for South London.

Ald. Rose withdrew his motion at the suggestion of Mayor Stevely, and Ald. Beattie will arrange a schedule of concerts.

Amusements

"Brewster's Millions" was produced at the Grand last night before a rather small audience, but every man, woman and child in the house left the theater at the close of the performance with the opinion that the attraction was one of the most entertaining and satisfying seen at the Grand this season.

It's a cure for the blues, a three-hours' sojourn in the land of make-believe with something doing all the time, and an evidence at every turn of artistic interpretation.

In brief, the story is that of a young multimillionaire, who tries to get rid of his money. He squanders and gives away one fortune, only to find that some heartless relative has left him several millions more to get away with, and he is despondent. It's a case of too much money. Everybody else in the world is looking for the "dough," but Brewster is trying to unload his filthy lucre. The result is a conglomeration of uproariously funny incidents, interwoven with which is a love story of entrancing interest.

The production is presented by Co-han & Harris, which is sufficient to guarantee it to local theatergoers.

Mr. Robert Ober, as Brewster, proved an actor of high attainments, and he was supported by an evenly-balanced, artistic cast.

Miss Mathis, as Peggy Gray, gave a wholesome, refreshing interpretation of the role, and won great favor with the audience.

But it is unfair to single out any one member for especial praise. They were all excellent, and satisfied the house.

The settings were superb.

Londoners should not miss the performance at the Grand tonight. "Brewster's Millions" is as good as the best.

All the pliancy and pith of McCutcheon's famous novel have been saved in the dramatization, which means that the play is good. See it, and have nothing to regret.

The management of Springbank Theater will inaugurate a short season of motion pictures and picture songs, commencing May 25. An hour and a half entertainment will be given, commencing at 8:30. On June 5 the Stoddart Stock Company will begin their summer engagement.

The Spencer Stock Company will begin a four-night engagement at the Grand tomorrow, presenting popular plays and comedies. The opening bill will be the furiously funny comedy entitled "Other People's Money," by Edward Owings Towne. The comedy is irresistible and lovers of pure amusement will have their appetites tickled by this favorite concoction of mirth, melody and music. The dialogue is bright, snappy and crisp, and is entirely out of the beaten path.

On Thursday, another comedy, "The Morning After," by Tremaine and Hall, authors of the great comedy success "Last Twenty-Four Hours," and for Friday, Saturday and the matinee, Daudet's version of "Sapho," will be presented. This version has never been seen in this city, and con-
