been seen" by parties who had appeared before the court, and that reduction had followed. The court asked Assessment Commissioner Hall for an explanation of this statement. Mr. Hall said he had no explanation to make to the court, but he stated that he had had in a statement to the assessors.

The court said that this did not explain them, and they demanded an explanation. Mr. Hall admitted that he had made a mistake in making the statement. The assessors are preparing a statement for publication, and this is expected to restore peace.

The members of Centenary Church welcomed their pastor, Rev. Dr. Ross, back from his old country trip this evening. S. F. Lantz, the president of a short musical program was given and refreshments were served.

There is no change in the condition of E. A. Colquhoun, ex-M.L.A. Evangele Hunter made a special petition for him this evening.

Tom Hazel and Hazel & Sons died today at noon. He was taken to the city hospital last night and operated upon for appendicitis. Yesterday he took a turn for the worse, and his death was expected hourly. He is survived by four small children. S. F. Lantz, the president of the board, was in the city who would be missed more.

A Redoubt Fight. The Hamilton City Council officials profess to be glad that the city is going to enter a redoubt fight with the city of Hamilton. They claim to be making money by the new schedule, and will stick to it as long as they can. The assessment committee will take some months for the city to obtain the necessary information to make the decision. It looks as though the courts would decide to see that the company carries out its agreement. The only thing the city does is to apply for the forfeiture of the franchise. The company will have to pay $100,000. That amount is made up of $50,000 bonds, $10,000 of the Ontario Power Commission, and $40,000 of the Ontario Power Commission. No one wants the railway at such a fancy price as that.

Justice Sider, who was sole arbitrator in the Wharfedale case, handed down a decision in favor of the executors today. The decision of the arbitrator was to bind the liabilities of George E. Wharfedale to the estate of his father. The judge held that the estate did not owe him anything, but that the executors were to pay the debt of $200,000. The son paid for the estate of his father. The son paid for the estate of his father. The son paid for the estate of his father.
